

'Library saved', say campaigners

By Francesca Evans

LYME Regis Library has been saved from closure, according to campaigners.

Campaign group Ad Lib has reported that members of the county council's Policy Development Panel have recommended Lyme Regis Library is not axed.

The panel made a u-turn on its original plan to close 20 Dorset libraries in a bid to save £800,000 and has said it would like to see all 34 remain open, with savings being made across all libraries, rather than by closing some.

However, 10 libraries could still be cut, including Charmouth, as Dorset Library Service has said it is "unsustainable" to keep all 34 open.

Councillor Lorna Jenkin, who has been working to save the library since January, said: "This is very good news. I shall, however, keep my fingers crossed until the county's Community Overview Committee votes on June 20th because we have noticed that councillors do not always vote as expected.

"Then the full council of Dorset County Council will consider the Community Overview Committee's recommendations in July, and at that point I hope to uncross my fingers. Until then we continue to press for Lyme Regis' cause.

"I know this policy panel has taken note of the energetic campaigning from Ad Lib and local library users, including our own large group of Lyme Regis Save the Library supporters, and the LymeForward campaigners, including Councillor Anita Williams, Wendy Davies of Lyme Regis Development Trust and myself.

"We also owe much to our local county councillors Colonel Geoffrey Brierley and Ronald Coatsworth, who have been working tirelessly on the side of West Dorset's threatened libraries.

"This should give us breathing space to work on our library vision with our partners. I intend to go to the Community Overview Committee meeting next Monday to watch the drama."

The recommendation to save Lyme Regis Library is for the service to stay at its current Silver Street site. However, library campaigners Councillor Anita Williams has said she will continue to work towards providing a new "innovative" service, which could possibly tie in with The Hub youth club, as reported at Lyme Regis Development Trust's recent annual general meeting (see page 5).

Councillor Williams said there were still "no certainties" but Lyme Regis Library was safe for the "foreseeable future".

She added: "We are encouraged to see that it has been recognised that Lyme has a great need for a library service on the grounds of our geographic location, deprivation and demographic grounds.

"We have campaigned to tell Dorset Library Service that many of our library users would simply be unable to access a library in Bridport. Our library users have also been very vocal in support of the library and Lyme comes high up the list of residents' responses in support of the library.

"The current report indicates that Lyme forms part of the suggested list of libraries to be saved that has been put forward by Dorset Library Service.

■ THIS week POLLY RODIN joins View From on work experience from the Woodroffe School, Lyme Regis.

Polly is 15-years-old and lives in Lyme Regis after moving here with her parents and younger brother, from Portsmouth, about five-years-ago. However, she still visits Portsmouth fairly often to see family and friends, and her brother is still a keen supporter of the Portsmouth football team.

Polly is currently in year 10 at The Woodroffe School and is starting her GCSEs.

Polly enjoys doing drama both in and out of school and is very interested in subjects such as history, English and art.

■ WHAT do you like most about school?

Apart from the fact that school is a great place to see my friends everyday, I enjoy a lot of my subjects, even more now that I am taking my GCSEs and got to choose my favourite lessons to continue with. It is also nice to know that you are doing something productive with your day, building on knowledge and effectively helping to improve my future.

■ WHAT do you dislike?

I can't say I love the early mornings! It is also sometimes difficult to drag myself to school when the weather is lovely, it seems such a waste to be sitting in a classroom when you could be out in the sunshine.

■ IS there anything you would change about school if you could?

I would ban all exams. They are so stressful and time consuming, especially since I started my GCSEs. But mostly I enjoy school, and the fact that everybody is going through the same thing makes exams a little less scary.

■ WHAT is your favourite subject?

I particularly enjoy history and art at school. I love the creative aspects to art, and it is a way in which I can express myself. It is more of a hobby than work to me. I am interested in history because I am fascinated by people of the past, and finding out about their everyday lives, conflicts and major discoveries.

■ WHAT do you like about drama?

Drama has always been an interest of mine, I love watching performances and it inspires me to go and do the same. I take pleasure in stepping outside my own body and becoming a character, trying to think and act like them. It is great working alongside people towards a performance, and nothing beats the thrill of opening night. Drama has supplied me with a great deal of enjoyment over the years and has also brought me many confidence building experiences.

■ IF you could star alongside a famous actor who would it be and why?

That is tricky because there are so many actors that I admire. I would like to work alongside Reese Witherspoon, as I have never seen a film of hers that I have disliked and I really admire her as an actress, or Daniel Radcliffe. I have always loved the Harry Potter books and films. He has been so successful from such a young age, I'm sure he would be able to give me plenty of advice.

■ WHY did you choose to come to a newspaper for your work experience?

Journalism is something that I am considering following as a career. I enjoy English and writing and so it seemed suitable that I should look into journalism. History has also given me an interest in this area, because we often have to use old newspapers, but also write reports of our own. I really enjoy looking beyond just the facts and taking into accounts the opinions of different people.

■ WHERE do you see yourself in five years time?

I hope to be at university, I am still unsure of what I want to do when I am older and so I want to stay in education so that I am able to learn as much as possible, before making decisions.

■ WHAT would be your dream job?

I think I would enjoy being a theatre critic. It would be wonderful to go and watch performances for a living, and it also ties in with my interest in journalism.

■ WHAT was the last book you read, film you watched and CD you listened to?

The last book I read was "Guantanamo Boy", a moving story based around the horrific events of Guantanamo Bay, the last film was "Water for Elephants", an excellent film starring Robert Pattinson and Reese Witherspoon, and the last CD was Jessie J's new album.

■ WHAT would be the first thing you would buy if you won the lottery?

I would like to think I would be sensible and save all the money. But I would really love to buy my family and myself a holiday home somewhere exotic, like Greece, and also go on a huge shopping spree.

Hub campaign wins support of thousands in just a week

SUPPORT for The Hub's bid to win £60,000 Lottery funding has reached over 1,000 people in a week.

After being officially launched last week, The Hub's stake in the Jubilee People's Millions competition, to be aired on ITV West Country on June 28th, has been given the thumbs up by every part of Lyme Regis. Oliver Letwin MP, the Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman, councillors,

by Geoff Baker

police, school pupils, the local media and even mascot "Wurzel Wallaby" are backing the campaign.

The wallaby - a zoo stray recently found hopping around the town - has been given a Dorset accent and has become a YouTube sensation. Hub supporters said this type of "random campaigning" by independent groups in indicative of the whole community's backing of The Hub.

Shops and businesses have been sticking up posters to advertise the campaign, and local young people have also been pledging their support and are eagerly anticipating the opening of a new youth club, which is currently closed because of the prohibitive cost of meding the leaking roof and creating disabled access.

Backed by 1,000

Having won the hearts and minds of Lyme and getting the thumbs up backing from over 1,000 on social networking site Facebook, Hub campaigners are now aiming to take their cause into the record books.

Dads and their families are invited to take part in singing a continuous round of children's song "Frere Jacques" to beat the world record of 220 on Father's Day - Sunday, June 19th. In what will rank as one of the UK's most unusual Father's Day activities, it is hoped hundreds will be filmed singing in a static conga curving around Lyme's famous Cobb and the Cart Road, kicking off at 12pm.

The chanting caterpillar will be filmed by the Hub's own TV team and participants will be able to see "their bit" when the massive chorus is broadcast on YouTube to prove the Guinness World Record bid for the most people ever to sing a round.

If more than 250 people take part Lyme will claim a new world record and The Hub hopes to have gained more support for its Lottery funding vote-off on June 28th - now known as "Hub Tuesday".

"We are supplying lyrics sheets but we don't know how many we'll need" said Fran Williams, director of The Hub campaign. "We have no idea how many people may turn up on the day. But it will be good, safe and fun event, and hopefully it will remind people to please vote for us on June 28th."

The Hub will be pitched against Portland Gig Club on June 28th. A phone number for voting will be released on the day with calls costing 11 pence.

♦ See The Hub's Thumbs Up campaign photos on pages 6 and 7.

Lyme library may be saved but Charmouth campaigners brand council 'incompetent'

"Whilst being encouraged at our own position, our thoughts are with those communities, such as Charmouth, that are still continuing to fight for the retention of their library."

"We're not celebrating yet, but it does look like there is some light at the end of the tunnel and we are cautiously optimistic for the future of our library."

Four options on the future of Dorset's libraries will be considered by the county's Community Overview Committee on Monday, June 20th:

Option A - the original option to retain 14 core libraries and offer the remaining 20 to be run by the local community or be closed;

Option B - to retain 24 libraries (including Lyme Regis) and offer the remaining 10 to be run by the local community or be closed;

Option C - to reduce opening hours across all 34 libraries by 10 per cent, cut the book fund and reduce staff;

Option D - reduce the book fund, review the approach to buying books, cut the frequency of book deliveries and reduce staff across all 34 libraries.

The decision will then be ratified by Dorset County Council's Cabinet in July and finally approved by the Full Council.

♦ CAMPAIGNERS in Charmouth have blamed the possible closure of their library on the county council's "incompetence" and said DCC is making it "impossible" for communities to take over the running of their libraries.

Protestors said the county council took too long in getting back to them with information on whether using tax payers' money to fund the library was legal or not, and they missed the deadline they were given to decide whether or not they wanted to take over the running of the service.

Chairman of the Friends of Charmouth Library, Hazel Robinson, said: "It almost beggars belief that it took county hall weeks to come up with an answer, and even more unbelievable that the ruling, when it eventually came last week, meant that we'd missed the boat. The closing date had passed by the time we got our answer."

Charmouth Parish Council was told it was not able to spend tax payers' money on saving its library service, as it had already spent the maximum it could on what are described as "social projects".

Ad Lib said that this cap on how much communities can spend on such projects means many are "legally barred" from taking over the running of their libraries.

Group chairman Tim Lee added: "It is clear that no-one at county hall seemed to realise that this legal interpretation has blown a hole in its plans to shift the cost of running libraries from the county's library service on to village communities."

"Not to have realised that many communities were either unwilling to attempt to raise such huge sums or would be forbidden by local government law from doing so, strikes us as incompetence of the highest order."

Hub logo winners revealed

THE Hub youth club in Lyme Regis has announced the winners of its logo design competition.

Steve Chan, 23, won the senior award and St Michael's Primary School Year 6 pupil, Harriett Gibbs, 11, won the junior award.

Organisers of the competition were overwhelmed with entries, especially in the junior category.

Both winning designs will eventually be blown up in size and used as signs on the outside of the Church Street youth club following its refurbishment, as well as being used on the club's website.

Mr Chan's design will also be used as the club's official letterhead and it is hoped that all designs entered will be plastered on one of the indoor walls of the club.

Harriett said: "It's really nice to have won because me and all my friends will use the club when it's open and my design will be everywhere."

LRDT reports 'breathtaking' support for The Hub and looks forward to coming year

CHIEF executive of Lyme Regis Development Trust, Marcus Dixon, described public support for The Hub as "breathtaking" at the organisation's annual general meeting last week.

Over £20,000 has already been raised towards the refurbishment of the new youth club through fundraising events in the town.

Mr Dixon said The Hub would be one of the development trust's priorities over the coming year. He hopes that the InSPA-Ration Youth Cafe will be able to move to the Church Street site by August, with a cafe and advice centre at ground floor level.

This will free up 17 and 18 Church Street, and the trust is currently looking at the best cost effective way to use it, which would generate income for local young people.

Other trust priorities for the coming year will include securing funding for an extension to St Michael's Business Centre and for the proposed Jurassic Coast Studies Centre. However, Mr Dixon admitted that it was "not a good time to be developing a large capital project".

The trust is also working to protect Lyme Regis Library from county council cuts, with the option of moving the library to another site in the town and using the current Silver Street site for affordable housing.

Talks have been held with the Diocese of Salisbury about the possibility of refurbishing the whole of The Hub complex, including the St Michael's church hall and the old playground area behind it, to incorporate a new library service and study space.

In his report about the future of the development trust, Mr Dixon said changes to local government, including decentralisation and localism, "throws up a lot of opportunities for the community" over the next few years.

He said that the Localism Bill would "change things beyond recognition" and that communities such as Lyme Regis are going to have to "work to support themselves".

■ STAFF of Scott Rowe Solicitors with their new Conveyancing Quality Scheme certificate

Scott Rowe meets high standards

SCOTT Rowe Solicitors in Lyme Regis has become one of the first practices in the country to secure membership to the Law Society's Conveyancing Quality Scheme (CQS) - the mark of excellence for the home buying process.

The solicitors, which also has offices in Axminster and Chard, underwent rigorous assessment by the Law Society in order to secure CQS status, which marks the firm out as meeting high standards in dealing with property sales.

Tina Bricknell, head of conveyancing at Scott Rowe said: "Scott Rowe is delighted to have secured CQS status. It is recognition of the high standards we provide to our residential property clients and is a signal to future home buyers of the excellent service level we provide at, what is often, a stressful time for many people.

"The benefit to clients who use Scott Rowe when buying a home will be that they will receive a reliable, efficient service as recognised by the CQS standard."

The CQS scheme will require Scott Rowe to undergo a strict assessment, compulsory training, regular reporting, random audits and annual reviews in order to maintain its high quality status.

Lyme's historical achievement to be marked with procession

A PARADE and service will be held tomorrow (Thursday) to celebrate the anniversary of the end of the Siege of Lyme in 1644.

On April 20th 1644, during the Civil War, Prince Maurice and a force of 6,000 men invaded parliamentarian Lyme Regis.

Despite having little defences and fewer men, the people of Lyme Regis successfully defended their town during the two-week siege.

Walls of mud were hastily constructed around the town, which was much smaller than it is today. Three forts were also used to defend against cannon fire of the attacking forces, and the port kept them supplied throughout the siege.

Even the women dressed as men to help in the fight against the royalists.

On June 15th, Prince Maurice lifted the Siege of Lyme and withdrew with his army to Exeter, after losing hundreds of lives and large supplies of ammunition.

Lyme Regis Regatta and Carnival Committee will celebrate this important date in the history of the town with a parade at 7pm tomorrow. The procession will be led from Lyme Regis Baptist Church on broad Street to Theatre Square by drummers from Lyme Regis Junior Band.

All are invited to take part in appropriate historical dress, some of which can be provided.

The parade will be followed by prayers and a short service on Theatre Square.

New chairman for Town Mill in its 10th anniversary year

THE Town Mill in Lyme Regis has appointed Chris Savory as its new chairman.

Mr Savory has taken over the position from Godfrey Thomas, who stood as chairman for several years and oversaw the refurbishment of the Town Mill Malt-house.

The new chairman is keen to maintain the ethos of the Town Mill complex, which is celebrating its 10th anniversary year, and to lead the Town Mill Trust in developing the work of the mill in the years to come.

With a background in accountancy, Mr

Savory has worked in finance mainly in the health sector across the country. He and his wife Erika bought a house in Lyme Regis in 2004 and currently live in the town at weekends, but plan to permanently move to Lyme in the near future.

His interests include politics, history and gardening, and he previously ran for a position on Lyme Regis Town Council during a by-election in 2009.

Mr Savory said: "I am very much looking forward to working with volunteers, tenants, staff and fellow trustees to build a strong future for the Town Mill."

Community champ Cecil tours tea factory

COMMUNITY Champion award winner, Cecil Quick, from Lyme Regis, was given a special guided tour of Clipper Teas in Beaminster, which sponsored his award.

Mr Quick, 90, was named Community Champion at the West Dorset Local Champions Awards in April, organised by Lyme Media & Events Ltd – publishers of the View From newspapers.

He was presented his certificate and award by staff of Clipper Teas, for his connection with the Royal British Legion spanning over 65 years.

Mr Quick was invited to the Clipper Teas factory for a full guided tour, from the tea imports to the finished product, all in special protective wear to keep in line with health and safety regulations.

He said the whole process was "fantastic" and thanked Clipper Teas for their kindness, particularly Clare Tootill, Julia Beal and Andrew Jones. Mr Quick was given a caddy of his favourite tea to take home in addition to the hamper he was given soon after his award.

"What a lovely, kind company," he added.

Blame game down the drain

LAST week, the Lyme Matters column in the View From Lyme Regis asked what Lyme Regis plc would do if their contracted plumber were unavailable when a drain was blocked at a Lyme loo over a Bank Holiday weekend.

Having jettied the non-executive directors in for a champagne consultation with the chairman, I can offer the following choices:

1. Raise the price from the previous £1 a go to £1.50
2. Blame leaves in the drain
3. Announce a hosepipe ban
4. Activate an 08-something premium rate phone line, offering directions to the nearest alternative facility... but only after advising that the call was being recorded for training purposes, and announcing the following options: A) Selecting your least favourite district councillor from a list of 30 for next week's slamming ritual in Lyme's Guildhall; B) Phoning the ambulance service to have a go at answering their 38 questions to see if the emergency merited a call out; C) Posting a complaint in a range of media including Facebook, Twitter and U-bend Tube.

5. Sell out to a private equity investor and do a runner to the nearest tax haven

6. Go into administration, and let the government deal with the, er, fall out

7. Turn the loo into a far more lucrative Plumbing Academy with full charity status and apply for a government grant

Lyme is still a 'delightful place'

MY husband and I recently visited Lyme Regis.

Last time we were here was when our children were small, over 30 years ago, and we were so pleased by our experience we felt you would like to know.

Apart from the obvious beauty of the surrounding countryside, we found Lyme Regis very friendly, the streets, especially the front harbour and beach area, kept clean and, although there were many people with dogs, no dog mess was visible anywhere.

We hope to come back in the near future. Meanwhile we are telling friends and family what a delightful place Lyme Regis is.

Are we fighting to keep our library... or LymeNet?

I AM confused. I was under the impression that Councilor Anita Williams was fighting to save the library, so I voted for her.

Now she wants the premises converted to eight single bed apartments. Got that wrong, didn't I?

Wait a minute, who are they saving here? Is it the library or LymeNet?

Corinthians set sail... with a little tippie!

THE Corinthian Rowers of Lyme Regis are due to set sail on their trip across the English Channel today (Wednesday) to prospective twin town Barfleur.

The trip, as reported in last week's View From Lyme Regis, will give the rowers practice for when they take on the 2,500 nautical mile Atlantic Challenge, from La Gomera in the Canary Islands to Antigua in the Caribbean, in December, in aid of the British Heart Foundation and ShelterBox.

The Town Mill Brewery wished the sailors good luck before they left and gave them two presentation packs of locally brewed real ale.

But the team - made up of Elliot Dale, Chris Walters, Tony Short and Brian Fletcher - is under strict instruction not to stop for a "beer break" halfway through the stretch. The drinks are to be added to a local produce gift for the Mayor of Barfleur, which will be presented on arrival.

The Corinthians hope to improve links between Barfleur and Lyme Regis, as steps towards an official twinning of the towns have already been made.

The team plans to return to Lyme on Sunday, June 19th and hopes to bring back a similar gift from France to present to the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Sally Holman.

Power Boat Club raises £1,000 for Candles on the Cobb fund

LYME Regis Power Boat Club has donated £1,000 to the Candles on the Cobb fund for local youth organisations and national charities.

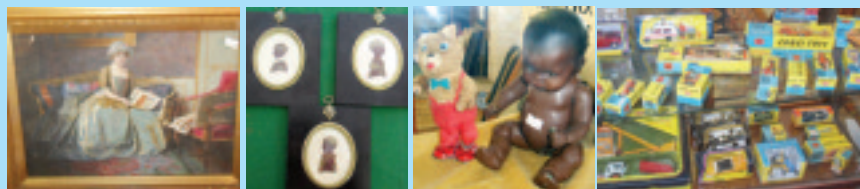

The club, based on Monmouth Beach, raised the money through a charity auction at their annual dinner and dance. Many of the auction items had been generously donated by club members, including a day at the Renault Formula One headquarters.

Candles on the Cobb co-organiser and deputy harbourmaster, Mike Higgs, said: "We are really grateful for the generosity of the power boat club and its members. Every penny raised for Candles on the Cobb goes to very worthy causes."

The spectacular Candles on the Cobb event - the brainchild of Mr Higgs and town crier Phil Street - will next be held in the summer of 2012. For more information visit www.candlesonthecobb.com

Library fight near to victory

NEWS this week that there could be a change of heart at County Hall over the disgraceful handling of the pending closure of 20 libraries in Dorset.

It would seem that ten of those under threat, including Lyme Regis, could be saved but things still look bleak for Charmouth.

Ad Lib, the organisation set up to fight the closure of the libraries, issued a press statement on Monday afternoon stating that the county library service had had a change of heart and were recommending that Lyme Regis library should be saved from closure.

Dorset County Council also issued a press statement the following morning which was not so categorical. The county angle was that, following public consultation, a number of options were now open to county councillors to make a decision next week, to be ratified by the cabinet and full council in July.

One of these options is to retain 24 libraries, including Lyme Regis, but offering the remaining ten, including Charmouth, to local communities to own and manage with support from the county council.

Our county councillor, Colonel Geoffrey Brierley, who has played a blinder on the

Lyme Matters

by Philip Evans

issue, maintained all along that the Lyme library would be saved.

When the plan to close libraries was announced Lyme, after a slow start, set up an action group under the auspices of Lyme Regis Development Trust and supported by Lyme Regis Town Council.

The group has been led with great enthusiasm and industry by town councillor Lorna Jenkin and new member Anita Williams, encouraged and advised by Wendy Davies, chairman of the Development Trust.

Anita has been particularly pro-active in generating publicity and probably secured her place on the new town council because of her work on the library issue.

Both councillors Jenkin and Williams have welcomed the news that the Lyme library might have been reprieved but have stressed that the fight goes on until the full county council makes the final decision on July 20th.

In a bid to come up with a plan to protect library services in the town, it was announced at the recent annual meeting of the Development Trust that discussions were taking place with interested parties, including St Michael's Church, about the library moving into a newly-created space at the back of The Hub youth club in Church Street which would also be used as a study centre.

This could then release the present library site in Silver Street for affordable housing.

The View understands that the proposal to retain the library, as announced by Ad Lib, would mean it would stay in its present location but the action group intends to continue its negotiations with its partners to "deliver their library vision".

The county's bid to save £800,000 from its budget could not have been handled in a more crass and unjust manner.

Libraries are not just for people who live in the bigger towns and any reduction in services should have been spread across all libraries and not limited to the smaller ones.

Then there is the bizarre revelation that Dorset County Council pays more for its books than Poole Borough. How come?

Lorna Jenkin and Anita Williams have done a brilliant job in fighting this injustice and hopefully their efforts will be fully recognised when the county council meets in July.

Wetherspoons are NOT coming to Lyme

◆ GREAT excitement among Lyme's drinking fraternity last week when notices went up in Broad Street saying that the pub chain Wetherspoons was coming to the town, a rumour that regurgitates itself with monotonous regularity.

Within minutes of the notices going up Facebook was naming premises and welcoming the cut-price pub chain.

Sorry to tell you, but Wetherspoons have categorically denied that they are on the verge of opening a pub in Lyme. And they certainly will not be moving into Lloyds Bank (as the above notice displayed at the bank confirms).

EVENT OF THE WEEK...

SOCIAL event of the weekend was definitely Lee Caddy's 50th birthday bash at the Golf Club on Saturday evening.

As a former player and chairman of Lyme Regis Football Club, and a keen golfer, the party, superbly organised by Lee's girlfriend, photographer Lynnette Ravenscroft, was graced by some of the town's most high profile sportsmen over the years, including the likes of Richard Austin, Brendon Cable, Owen Bosence, Martin Rowe and Stuart Rattenbury.

It was great to join such company in chatting over the days we played for the Seaside and Lee demonstrated his ongoing commitment to the club by raising £600 towards the Davey Fort refurbishment.

Hawkchurch hiker walks South West Coast for MAD

A HAWKCHURCH hiker has raised £200 for a local theatre group by taking on the toughest part of the South West Coast Path.

Christine Bright, along with friend Mollie Hemmens and Parker the dog, has been walking sections of the coast path for the past two years.

Recently the pair walked from Westward Ho in Devon across the border to Bude in Cornwall, a total of 36.8 miles, which included an eight-mile section from Hartland Quay to Morwenstow, reputed to be the toughest part of the entire coast pat, all in aid of the Marvellous Amateur Dramatics (MAD) group based in Charnmouth.

They split the walk over four days covering Bude to Morwenstow (7.8 miles) on day one, Westward Ho to Clovelly (11 miles) on day two, Clovelly to Hartland Quay (10 miles) on day three and finally the last eight miles, Hartland Quay to Morwenstow.

Mrs Bright said: "We may have saved the hardest to last, but it was by far the best. The steep descents took us down to some lovely valleys complete with waterfalls, and after the steep climb back to the cliff tops we were rewarded with the most spectacular scenery of this rugged coastline.

"There were also hidden gems along the way, with Ronald Duncan's hut, where the playwright and poet used to go to write, and the National Trust owned Hawkers Hut, an unusual hut built by the vicar of Morwenstow out of drift wood, which he used as a little retreat from the village."

With the prospect of facing their toughest stretch yet, Christine decided to ask her friends for sponsorship to encourage her to complete the walk and raise funds for the award-winning drama group.

She added: "During recent months I have been helping my daughter, Lisa, with fundraising events for the local group Marvellous Amateur Dramatics, and I thought maybe I could contribute by asking family and friends to sponsor me."

Mrs Bright presented a cheque for £200 to MAD member and View From reporter Tom Glover. "I would like to thank everyone who supported me and I am delighted to be able to present the group with a cheque for £200. The recent show 'Our House' was a roaring success and I wish the group well in their future ventures," she said.

Over 50s get chance to dance at 2012 Olympic celebrations

OVER 50s will be given the opportunity to dance at the 2012 Olympic cultural celebrations by joining new classes launching in Lyme Regis this summer.

"A Dance A Day" will offer weekly dance classes to enhance fitness, wellbeing and creativity, and encourage adults to get active through dance.

All those who take part in the classes, run by Activate Performing Arts, will have the opportunity to perform in Weymouth and Portland as part of the 2012 Olympics celebrations.

Led by qualified dance teachers, each session will offer the opportunity to meet new people and to devise a personalised dance programme, so participants can keep active between classes.

The classes are open to everyone over 50, from those who have dance experience but want to try something new, or people who have two left feet but love moving to music.

Free taster sessions will be held at the Marine Theatre on Thursdays, June 23rd, June 30th, and July 7th from 11am to 12pm, with regular weekly classes starting in September.

To book a place on one of these free taster sessions, or for more information, contact Rosalind or Alice at Activate Performing Arts on 01305 260954 or email info@activateperformingarts.org.uk

Amnesty branch to host birthday party for pro-democracy leader

THE Lyme Regis branch of Amnesty International is throwing a party to celebrate the 66th birthday this month of Burmese pro-democracy leader, Aung San Suu Kyi.

The party will be held on Friday, June 17th and will include a dessert buffet of cakes, pies, brownies, fruit and cheeses. Wine is also available.

The fundraiser, which will benefit the Burma Campaign, will take place at Sherborne House, 35 Broad Street, in Lyme Regis, from 7.30pm to 9pm.

Tickets can be bought at Martin Diplock Estate Agents in Broad Street or by calling 01297 442237. Tickets cost £5 in advance or £6 on the door.

This will be the first time in 15 years that Aung San Suu Kyi, a former General Secretary of the National League for Democracy, has had a birthday in freedom. Until last November she had been kept under house arrest by the Burmese Junta for 15 of the 21 years between 1989 and 2010.

In search of Impressionist painters

A GROUP of Year 8 students from the Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis, travelled to Paris and Giverny to find out more about Impressionist Art and artists who lived in the French capital at the end of the 19th century.

They started off with a visit to Musée d'Orsay where the finest art works by Monet, Manet, Degas, Pissaro, Cézanne, Sisley, and many more can be seen.

After two hours of intense drawing and sketching in the museum, the students left the building and crossed over the river Seine for a visit to Musée de l'Orangerie in the Tuileries garden.

This museum is home to Monet's famous paintings of water lilies, which the students had been studying in their art lessons.

After more drawing and sketching, the group ambled through the Jardin des Tuileries towards the Louvre museum and then walked on to the Ile de la Cité where they enjoyed a well deserved rest on the Place Dauphine.

Later in the afternoon, they went to the Pompidou Centre – the iconic museum of modern art, where they took the escalators in the big tubes on the outside of the building to enjoy a panoramic view of Paris from the terraced roof.

The next day of the stay was spent visiting the house in Giverny – 60 miles north of Paris – where Monet lived and designed his famous gardens for his water lily paintings. The students ended their day strolling through the streets of Giverny and sketching an exquisite poppy field, reminiscent of Monet's painting.

During the evenings the students took in some of the sights and sounds of Paris around the Canal Saint Martin, the Opéra Garnier and Montmartre.

An exhibition of work by Year 8 students will be shown at Lyme Regis Medical Centre from tomorrow (Thursday).

Lyme Regis in black and white

■ THESE black and white photos come from the collection of the late John Curtis, who ran what was locally known as "John's Back Shop", now Staples Stores.

They were loaned to the View by John's son, also John, who is planning to move back to the area from Middlesex.

Huge crowd at academy's biggest boat launch

HUGE crowds gathered on the slipway in Lyme Regis to watch 12 new boats launch into the harbour.

The event marked the end of Lyme Regis Boat Building Academy's latest 38-week course, and was the most boats the academy had ever launched at once.

The vessels, ranging from rowing, clinker, day boats and a canoe, were carried from the Boat Building Academy in Monmouth Beach car park to the slipway in a parade. Academy founder and director, Tim Gedge,

by Francesca Evans

made a speech before the boats were launched one by one.

Mr Gedge said the boats were a "fantastic achievement".

"Everybody worked on the boats, it was very much a team effort. The students should be extremely proud of what they have achieved," he added.

The crowd cheered as the vessels were launched into water for the first time and students celebrated with champagne and a sail around the harbour.

Let yourself go to the Latin rhythms

THROUGHOUT the spring and summer months View From Reporter TOM GLOVER is welcoming all challenges for this new column 'Take on Tom'.

If your club, group or organisation would like to be the focus of this weekly column and could put Tom to the test then email him at tom@pemedial.co.uk or phone 01297 446154.

This week Tom joined Nicky Sweetland and her ZUMBA class at Bridport's St Swithin's Church Hall.

AFTER my adventures on the pole last time out I was hoping for a more sedate challenge this week. My challengers though, seem determined to get me dancing in some form or other and, this week, it was to the Latin rhythms of Zumba.

I think the final instalment of my column will culminate with me dancing down Bridport high street on market day, to the music of T-Rex, in true Billy Elliot fashion.

My instructor for the day was Nicky Sweetland, a lady I know well as she played my Mrs Cliff Richard, when I embodied the Peter Pan of pop for my stage role in Summer Holiday.

I knew as I sang that immortal line, "I'll be a bachelor boy until my dying day" each night, that half the women in the audience were thinking, "yes, if you dance like that you will."

Many a choreographer has tried to get me moving in time to music but I know the words "just stand at the back and smile" are never too far away.

■ RELAX AND ENJOY IT: Nicky Sweetland (centre) shows Tom Glover how it's done

Nicky, of all people then, should know not to issue me with a dance-based challenge, but I suspect that's exactly why she did.

After accidentally joining the advanced pole fitness class last week, I made sure I was in the more relaxed Monday morning class for Nicky's Zumba sessions.

Her evening sessions have people queuing at the door and squeezed into every available space, the Monday morning class is a little more relaxed. The majority of the class are ladies, mostly of retirement age - how hard could it be?

I'd turned up at St Swithin's Church Hall in my replica Wham "Choose Life" t-shirt, but 40 minutes in I was beginning to feel like I'd chosen the other option.

When I arrived I joined the only other man at the back of the room, safety in numbers I reckoned.

That man was 70-year-old Malcolm. We may have had years between us but we bonded in the way that only two solitary men in a dance-based fitness class can.

We danced alongside each other like brothers in arms, like a Britain's Got Talent act waiting to happen. We could be the men to send David Hasslehoff running, in slow motion no doubt, back to America for good.

For those who don't know Zumba, it is a bit like when you go out with your mates who insist on dancing to every song, only you have someone showing you how to do it.

I liked this element though, give me a "Macarena" or a "YMCA" any day, I know where I am with those songs, everyone is doing the same thing.

If you want to get me up dancing at a wedding reception, those are your songs to pick.

Despite my two left feet, Zumba is surprisingly easy to pick up and I found myself following the steps fine for 90 per cent of the time.

Nicky is always out in front showing you what to do and although some of the footwork does get a little complicated, I generally had it sussed by the end of the song.

If it gets too difficult, I soon learnt the "Malcolm" method, which is to do something close enough and do it with conviction.

The holy grail of fitness is to find something you enjoy, that way it feels less like hardwork. Zumba is definitely enjoyable once you let yourself go, everyone loves to dance when they think no-one else is watching.

And, at the end of the day, it's a fitness class not a dance competition. No-one is there to judge your dancing skills, the only outcome you really want is to get your heart racing and your body sweating, and it certainly does that. To top it off, it's actually pretty good fun as well - it beats a Monday morning in the office.

DAVE Hawkins established Bridport Tyre Specialist and Auto Safety Centre in April 1990 having previously managed at ATS.

With over 30 years experience both Dave and his colleague Richard Pincombe are based at Unit 9, East Road Business Park in Bridport and are happy to help with your tyre, exhaust and battery needs of your vehicle.

Since starting the business 21 years ago, Dave has grown it from doing

Back in October 2010, Dave updated the workshop with new equipment, which included a Hunter Computer Wheel Alignment, Hunter Wheel Balancer and Hunter fitting machine, all top of the range equipment, which is also used by Formula One teams.

Bridport Tyre Specialist & Auto Safety Centre's biggest achievement to date is in May of this year they were one of the first garages in the country to be awarded the 'Trust My Garage' membership. This is a really big achievement for a small garage and proves that they are true professionals who comply with a strict code of practice and that all work undertaken is guaranteed with the RMI. # From farm to popular holiday park

◆ HIGHLANDS END - commanding glorious views over Lyme Bay

Milestone for family who run tourism park in perfect setting

HIGHLANDS End, one of the most popular holiday parks in Dorset, is this year celebrating its 40th anniversary.

Situated at Eype, near Bridport, with panoramic views over Lyme Bay and just 500 metres from an unspoiled beach, Highlands End first opened in 1971 after Hertfordshire pig farmers Ken and Pat Butcher decided to start a new life in tourism with daughters Vanessa and Katrina.

The search for a suitable site lasted 18 months before the family moved to Highlands End Farm.

In those early days Highlands was still very much a farm, consisting of mainly pig and cow sheds, with cattle walking through the park twice a day for milking, but it also had 60 holiday homes and 20 tourers with planning permission for 160 caravan holiday homes.

Back in 1971 it cost 12 shillings to hire a caravan for a week with a £67 for a yearly pitch fee. There was a charge of £16 a week for a tourer and 50p a night for a tent – the prices reflecting the amenities being shared by the farm animals.

Interesting times

The Butchers' first major investment in Highlands came in 1971 when they spent £18,000 on a new toilet block - but with no electricity. The showers were coin operated and many visitors had interesting times leaping in and out of the showers to add more coins!

In 1972 the static caravans were removed to allow the farm animals into the park to provide additional income. There was no road access to the site and no water supply until 1976. Prior to this water was pumped from a borehole near to the park entrance.

For the first two or three years Pat Butcher commuted to and from Hertfordshire until it was decided that the family would live in a caravan. By the mid-1970s a family home was built near the park entrance much to the delight of Mrs Butcher because Ken kept selling the caravans and the family had to regularly move from caravan to caravan at short notice.

Daughter Vanessa started work cleaning the caravans in 1974 but soon progressed to shop assistant when the shop was built in the 1970s in what was the milking parlour.

Another significant change during the 1970s was the decision to change the rule of accommodating adults only to allow children of 12 and over to stay at Highlands and then all ages a few years later.

There was one family who regularly stayed at Highlands with a daughter known as "I'm 12" which was her greeting every time she visited the shop.

Up until the 1990s the visitors to Highlands End happily shared their holiday destination with a herd of cows. The dairy herd on surrounding farmland walked through the park twice a day to be milked until the farm was sold in the mid-1990s.

The Butchers acquired some of the land but regretted the end of the daily visits by the cows and the demise of the local dairy farm.

During 1978 the nearby Golden Cap Holiday Park was purchased and since then the family have increased their business interests by acquiring Graston Copse and Larkfield at Burton Bradstock, and Sandyholme at Owermoigne, near Dorchester.

Era of great change for Highlands amenities

THE beginning of the 1980s saw a significant step forward at Highlands End with the acquisition of the flats near the entrance to the park.

The family are particularly proud of this extension to their business with the flats being redeveloped in 2009, offering three well appointed apartments for all-year-round holiday rental.

The early 1980s was a time of celebration for the hard-working Butcher family. They took time out from the running of their expanding holiday park business for the 1982 wedding of daughter Vanessa to Martin Cox at St Mary's Church in Bridport. Martin worked for the local authority and was also a retained fireman at Bridport.

Martin, who went on to serve the fire service for over 25 years, became the seventh member of staff in 1984 and encouraged the development of the bar area which opened at Highlands in 1985, much of it constructed in heavy snow, and then the swimming pool in 1988, opened by West Dorset MP Sir James Spicer.

In the same year the old barn was knocked down to make way for the main toilet block, a second one being added in 1998.

The creation of the bar involved the demolition of the old dairy to make way for improved social amenities for their holiday guests.

Since then the bar and restaurant area have become an important focal point in the community, playing host to many local functions over the years.

The 1990s started in dramatic fashion when West Dorset was hit by some of the worst storms in living memory. Several caravans were damaged and had to be replaced but all affected owners were up and running again by April 1st.

Celebrating Highlands End

WEST DORSET LEISURE HOLIDAYS - A World Heritage Coastline on your doorstep

Investing in the future to make park more environmentally friendly

WITH Highlands End established as one of Dorset's premier holiday parks, development of the Eype site continued through the 1990s.

The tennis court was added in 1994 and Shepherds Down pitch and putt in 1995, adding to the many amenities and activities Highlands had to offer.

In the mid 1990s it was decided to add a sauna and steam room to the swimming pool, providing modern facilities required in an ever increasing competitive market.

The reception and shop were redeveloped in stages during the late 1990s, providing a modern area to accommodate the park's busy bookings office. In 2007 the office took control of bookings for all parks operated by the family.

The shop and tourist information have continued to grow and is now home to many local products and produce. Next winter the family is planning to change the existing shop store to make a small coffee shop with views across the valley.

Less traffic

In 2004 planning permission was obtained to build the new driveway, removing the park traffic from Mount Lane and providing customers with new and easier access, resulting in a benefit to the local community from less traffic in the lane.

Over the last five years, the Highlands End management team have also been conscious of the huge move towards encouraging sustainable tourism and to give more attention to the impact on the environment.

Subsequently, Highlands has been following and testing some environmental projects to help make the park more sustainable and environmentally friendly. These have included, the installation of recycling stations around the parks, including green waste, which is recycled by the maintenance team and re-used across Highlands' many flower beds.

Other innovations have included environmentally friendly vehicles, water butts on all buildings; enabling 80 per cent of watering to be done with recycled water.

The showers in the toilet blocks and swimming pool are partially powered by solar energy and air source heat pumps, and this includes all the water requirement in the bar and restaurant.

Highlands are investing in the future of alternative energy and the new apartments are the most modern aspect of today's world, with all heating carried out by air source heat pumps. PV Panels on the swimming pool roof, may soon be seen, helping to heat and maintain the pool at its comfortable 29 degrees.

Rainwater harvesting and further use of solar panels and air heat source pumps are under consideration for the future.

◆ FIVE-PAGE FEATURE ON HIGHLANDS END HOLIDAY PARK ◆

The fire engine connection

■ HIGHLANDS END - the perfect holiday setting

ONE of the unique features about Highlands End Holiday Park is its connection with the Fire Service.

Soon after Martin Cox's arrival at Highlands, after his marriage to Vanessa Butcher, an extension to the bar was built to accommodate a 1936 Leyland Fire Engine which now forms the focal point of what is believed to be the biggest collection of fire service memorabilia on public display.

The fire engine saw service in Weymouth and it was also based in Bridport in the 1960s where it was driven by Martin's uncles, both of whom served for more than 35 years at Bridport Fire Station.

Martin was also a long-serving retained fireman at Bridport.

Since 2003 Highlands End has also provided a home for a steam fire engine owned by Bridport Museum. The collection of fire brigade memorabilia is a constant source of interest for visitors and those attending the many functions at Highlands End.

♦ FROM their modest beginnings in 1971, the Butcher and Cox families have built Highlands End into one of Dorset's most popular and respected tourism parks with 142 privately owned and 18 caravan homes for hire; three apartments; two bungalows being developed into one bedroom apartments; and 195 touring and camping pitches.

Holiday home insurance

After investing a substantial amount of capital in a holiday home it is extremely important to protect your investment with an insurance policy specifically designed for the purpose.

At David Upshall Insurance Services we recognised this need, and in conjunction with Liverpool Victoria we are now able to offer a Holiday Home Insurance designed to accommodate the landlord's needs.

Liverpool Victoria is a large reputable insurer giving us excellent support in both arranging and administering the scheme, and together we aim to provide a professional service with competitive premiums.

The cover provided by the policy includes as standard, accidental damage, £5 million landlords liability, £10 million employers liability and if the property was to become empty a sixty day period before it is deemed to be unoccupied. In addition to the buildings cover we can include the landlord's contents, again on an accidental damage basis.

We have created an additional service to assist holiday home owners; this is in the form of a specifically dedicated website at www.holiday-homenews.co.uk the website is designed to give advice to landlords and information to visitors. If you are a landlord and do not use the services of an agent you may advertise your property with a picture and a description completely free of charge on our website.

Visit our site and call us to discuss your needs, on 01305 268883.

David Upshall Insurance Services are authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority.

History of the Oakroom

The Monmouth Rebellion

The Duke of Monmouth landed at Lyme Regis on the 11th June 1685 to challenge King James' claim to the throne, following the death of Charles II. He assembled an army in excess of 3000 men and marched to Sedgemoor in Somerset.

He was defeated by the King's army in less than a month. Around 1300 were taken prisoner. Five Judges came to Dorchester with the infamous Judge Jeffreys, whose reputation was that of the 'hanging judge'.

In September 1685, 312 cases were heard in the Oakroom at the rear of the Antelope Hotel; of these 292 were sentenced to death. Only 74 were executed, with 175 transported, 9 were fined or whipped and 54 were discharged.

Judge Jeffreys - having his eye on promotion - was later made Lord Chancellor.

When King James fell and William of Orange landed in Torbay, Jeffreys was captured and imprisoned in the Tower of London. He died in 1689 while awaiting trial, probably of natural causes. Rumours at the time said he has been poisoned while in the Tower and that his body had been returned to Dorchester and walled up in the Courtroom - now the Oakroom. This 17th Century Oak panelled room has been carefully restored to maintain its character and original features.

Today it is called The Oakroom and is a delightful tearoom, with a peaceful, tranquil atmosphere, replicating the style and service of a Lyons Corner House.

The Oakroom of today serves a variety of light meals throughout the day, lunches and of course, Dorset Clotted Cream Teas.

Dorchester Curiosity Centre opens its doors

THE latest business to open its doors in the county town, the Dorchester Curiosity Centre, welcomed members of the public to its first trading day at the weekend. With both indoor and outdoor trading areas, the Centre aims to sell antiques, modern and retro furniture shabby, chic, old and new art, jewellery, accessories, crafts, unusual gifts, organic food, plants and much, much more. Amongst the stalls busy trading on its first Saturday, visitors could buy almost anything from coal scuttles to garden statues and cinema posters to rustic tables and chairs. Fresh cherries were on offer along with burgers and sausages from Clayford Farm Produce, and granite, slate and marble fireplaces made to order. There were wonderful displays by Zavian Vintage Interiors, and the stunningly elegant, wearable vintage clothing of Mary Sharp. And the Old Tea House came along with the most delicious cup cakes, plain and fruit scones, lemon drizzle, and ginger cake – and a lovely cup of tea or coffee to wash it down. There is also a selection of cabinets to rent and the opportunity to have furniture and other valuable items such as Rolex and Cartier watches sold on a commission basis.

Proprietor Dean is still looking for more table top sellers, both for midweek and the weekends. And with ample free parking available, he hopes this is an offer local traders will grab with both hands. Saturday, 25th June sees his first Vintage Fair/Funday for the kids, as an event he hopes to hold once a month and he will be actively encouraging people to hold art exhibitions, wine tastings and other events in an effort to bring the wider community to the Dorchester Curiosity Centre. If you would like to discuss selling or trading, or would like to know more about the Centre, you can call Dean on 07956 540047 or 01305 251886. Alternatively you can email Dean on dsouterces@live.co.uk

FORMER NAVY MAN TAKES BAND'S HELM

FORMER submariner Paul Snowball was confirmed as Chairman of the Lyme Regis Town Band at their Annual General Meeting last week. He has been a member of the band for two years and takes over from Joe Turner. During a 22 year career, Paul played E flat bass with several Royal Navy bands.

In his review of 2010 - 2011, the retiring Chairman reported another very successful year. He mentioned the disappointment felt by all at the cancellation of the band's Annual Christmas Concert, because of the freezing conditions. However, he felt that this was more than offset by an excellent concert for St George's Day in April, and he highlighted the contribution made by the new Training Band in their first public performance. Particular thanks were extended to Nikki and Jane Herbert for their work in developing the Training Band and to all Officers and Committee members for their support.

In his report, the Musical Director John Powell agreed that the band had enjoyed a very good year. He felt that last summer's series of concerts on Marine Parade had been the best he could remember. The visit by Philip Harper had been extremely beneficial and he hoped that an annual visit from a professional musician would become a regular occurrence. Band Treasurer Heather Marraner also reported a successful year, with an overall increase in the band's income.

Paul Snowball was elected Chairman with Matt Luckhurst continuing as Deputy Chairman. Last year's committee members were re-elected en bloc: Val Mahoney, John Hallett, John Warr, Roger Grose, Viv Wright and Eric Wood, with the addition of Nikki Herbert. Gilly Warr and Heather Marraner were re-elected Secretary and Treasurer respectively. John Powell continues as Musical Director, with David Baldwin as Conductor and John Case the band's Librarian.

Thanks and best wishes were expressed to soprano player Jan Long, a former Committee member and Chairman, who is shortly moving from the area. Band members then voted for the Gordon Broom Shield, awarded annually to the person contributing most to the band and the winner was Nikki Herbert. The Bandmaster's Award for the most progress during the year was awarded to Paul Snowball. Both awards will be presented at the band's Annual Christmas Concert on December 17th.

Commenting on his new appointment, Paul Snowball said 'I am delighted to become Chairman of the Lyme Regis Town Band and would like to thank Joe Turner for his hard work last year. Having now played for two years I decided that I would like to give back to the band something of what the band has given to me.'

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

PERHAPS it is not surprising that many poems have been written about the dawning of a new day. This one was translated from the writings of Kalidasa, a 5th Century Indian scholar

SALUTATION TO THE DAWN

"Look well to this day
For it is life,
The very best of life.
In its brief course lie all
The realities and truths of existence
The joy of growth
The glory of action,
The splendour of beauty.

For yesterday is but a memory,
And tomorrow is only a vision,
But today, if well lived, makes
Every yesterday a memory of happiness
And every tomorrow a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day."

Fifteen centuries later, William Butler Yeats, talked about the dawn in quite a different way.

THE DAWN

I would be ignorant as the dawn
That has looked down

On that old queen measuring a town
With the pin of a brooch,
Or on the withered men that saw
From their pedantic Babylon
The careless planets in their courses,
The stars fade out where the moon comes.
And took their tablets and did sums;
I would be ignorant as the dawn
That merely stood, rocking the glittering coach
Above the cloudy shoulders of the horses;
I would be -- for no knowledge is worth a straw -
Ignorant and wanton as the dawn.

This next verse comes from Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's Birds of Passage, Flight the First.

DAYBREAK

A wind came up out of the sea,
And said, "O mists, make room for me."
It hailed the ships, and cried, "Sail on,
Ye mariners, the night is gone."
And hurried landward far away,
Crying, "Awake! it is the day."
It said unto the forest, "Shout!
Hang all your leafy banners out!"
It touched the wood-bird's folded wing,
And said, "O bird, awake and sing."
And o'er the farms, "O chanticleer,

Your clarion blow; the day is near."
It whispered to the fields of corn,
"Bow down, and hail the coming morn."
It shouted through the belfry-tower,
"Awake, O bell! proclaim the hour."
It crossed the churchyard with a sigh,
And said, "Not yet! in quiet lie."

And finally, a short poem from Sara Teasdale's 'Flame and Shadow' collection from 1920.

MORNING SONG

A diamond of a morning
Waked me an hour too soon;
Dawn had taken in the stars
And left the faint white moon.

O white moon, you are lonely,
It is the same with me,
But we have the world to roam over,
Only the lonely are free.

Respected violinist David Juritz to perform for Musequality World Busk in Dorchester

DAVID Juritz, Artistic Director of the Burton Bradstock Festival and one the UK's most respected violinists, is to perform at the River of Life Centre in Dorchester on Friday, June 17th. Juritz made international news in 2007 when he busked his way around the world playing Bach's music for solo violin. Leaving home with just a violin, a backpack and an empty wallet, he travelled through 26 countries, supporting his 80,000 mile journey by busking on the street corners of fifty towns and cities on six continents. His aim was to launch Musequality, a charity which supports music education projects for disadvantaged children in developing countries.

His performance at the River of Life Centre in Dorchester will form part of the Musequality World Busk. The programme of music for solo violin will include one of the greatest works for any instrument, Bach's monumental Chaconne.

During the evening Juritz will also speak about his travels and present a short film about the continuing work of Musequality. Tickets cost £10. The concert starts at 7pm at the River of Life Centre, Durngate Street, Dorchester DT1 1NA. 'Top' tribute act head to the Halls

ZZ TOPS is the unique three man tribute to rock music's best known Texan boogie band, and they're in Lyme on Friday, June 17th to "tear the house down!"

There latest tour features more tone, taste and tenacity than ever before. The show comes complete with their real beards, the crazy guitars, all the moves and over two hours of hot rodded rock'n'roll.

All eras of ZZ Top are included in the same show, in two very individual sets. Nik Ryan (Billy Bigguns) portrays the legendary front man, Billy Gibbons, in his looks and his playing, incorporating superb tone, style and feel with a sense of humour as he rocks his way through the show, getting the crowd on their feet as well as tearin' it up!

Meanwhile, the hillbilly cowboy antics of Dusty Hill on bass guitar are faithfully reproduced by Col Gray who nails the sound and unique vocal style of 'The Dust' whilst holdin' down the lowdown and turning every venue into one hell of a house party!

All this is backed up by Powerhouse Tub Whacking courtesy of Matt Jones (Franks Weird) taking on the role of Frank Beard (The Man With no beard!)

Packing the classics like 'Gimme All your Lovin', 'Sharp Dressed Man', 'Legs', 'Tush', 'LaGrange', 'Rough Boy' and many more into a two hour plus rock extravaganza and throwing in a few surprises for hardcore (and not so hardcore) fans to savour!

As any ZZ fan will tell you, there is only one ZZ Top. And as any ZZ TOPS fan will tell you, there is only one complete ZZ TOP show - and thats THE ZZ TOPS!

THE ZZ TOPS are: Nik Ryan (Rev Billy Bigguns) - Vocals/Fuzzy Guitar, Col Gray (Dusty Thrills) - Vocals/Bass Guitar and Matt Jones (Franks Weird) - Drums.

Tickets for next Friday's show cost £11 in advance (available from the Tourist Information Centre on 01297 442138, or Serendip, 11 Broad Street) or £13 on the door. Doors open 8pm.

Live screening of Swan Lake at Electric Palace

SWAN Lake performed by L'Opera national de Paris will be screened live from their performance in Paris to the screen of the Electric Palace in Bridport on Sunday, June 19th. This ballet performance is based on the scenario by Vladimir Begichev and Vassili Geltser after Russian folk tales and ancient German legend and has a runtime of two acts, approximately 2 hours and 20 minutes including interval.

In Rudolf Nureyev's ballet, Prince Siegfried shies away from the reality of power and marriage, by taking refuge in his dreams. He has a vision of a magic lake, representing the idealised love of a swan/maiden. This tragic impasse renders darker still the melancholy poetry of this fantasy tale.

The performance stars Les Étoiles Agnès Letestu and José Martinez, the Premier Danseur Karl Paquette, the Premiers Danseurs and the Corps de Ballet de l'Opéra national de Paris with music composed by Piotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky, performed by Orchestre de l'Opéra national de Paris, conducted by Vello Pähn

Tickets are on sale now standard £10.50 / children £5.50 / family £25 from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901

A feast of entertainment at Beaminster Festival

Beaminster Festival will this year be offering a wide variety of entertainment between Thursday, June 23rd and Sunday, July 3rd, including music, theatre and comedy.

Sunday, June 26th | FANTASTIC MR. FOX!

The Illyria Open Air Theatre Company are bringing their super new production of one of Roald Dahl's favourite children's stories. The setting is the glorious grounds of Slake Manor, Waytown – just north of Bridport and just south of Beaminster.

Everything planned promises to be a fantastic family day out – not only is there Open Air Theatre but there is a Hog Roast and side shows and all kinds of refreshments available – and you are encouraged to bring your swimming costumes.

The day's events starts from noon at Slake Manor, and the performance of Fantastic Mr. Fox is at 2.30 pm.

Tuesday, June 28th | THE GLAMOUR OF WATER THE GRAMMAR OF ROCKS

An enigmatic title for a lively and eclectic evening of poetry given by three of the west country's most admired poets – Kate Scott, Pam Zinnemann-Hope and Paul Hyland, who is also a member of the Magic Circle and promises to demonstrate his sleight of hand! The evening features readings of new poems and prose from a dynamic body of work that reveals the stories and histories of the land and seascape of the Jurassic Coast and the famous – and not so famous – people who enjoy its pleasures. The performance starts at 7.30pm at Beaminster Museum. Tickets cost £7

Thursday, June 30th | COCKTAILS AND LAUGHTER

Michael Law, founder of the world famous Piccadilly Dance Orchestra, is also a celebrated singer and pianist with a very special knowledge and affinity with the delightful comic and sentimental songs of Noel Coward. Michael – the quintessence of Coward – will give a rare solo entertainment which features his music and links it with anecdotes and stories that are wonderfully evocative of an age.

The performance starts at noon at St. Mary's Church, Beaminster. Tickets cost £7.

Friday, July 1st | LISZTOMANIA!

In this year of Franz Liszt's bicentenary, there are celebrations all over the globe to mark this significant anniversary of the Jools Holland or the Lang Lang of the 19th century! A Liszt devotee is writer John Spurling who bought a CD of music by Liszt some six years ago and has been compulsively listening to the maestro's work exclusively ever since! He has now produced a marvellous book as a result of his researches into the extraordinary life of one of the world's best loved romantic composers. By reading some lively sections from his Book of Liszt, John hopes to infect as many people as possible with his passion. And, at the same event, Liszt himself would be delighted to listen to the piano recital of his music played by the young multi award winning Grace Francis – whose interpretation of some of Liszt's most memorable pieces is one of the finest to listen to, including the exquisite Faust Waltz. A treat for all romantics!

Lisztomania takes place at 4.00 pm at St. Mary's Church Beaminster. Tickets cost £7.

Saturday, July 2nd | SONGS OF SUMMER

Cordelia Williams (piano) and Ashley Riches (baritone) give a breathtakingly beautiful lunchtime song recital to celebrate the joys of July.

The performance takes place from noon at St Mary's Church, Beaminster, Tickets cost £7.

Comedian and activist Mark Thomas brings his new show to Bridport Arts Centre

MULTI award winning comedian and activist Mark Thomas has so much under his already politically expanded belt that there could not possibly be anything left in this world untouched by his investigations. His last UK tours, 'The Manifesto' and 'Stupid Economy', both sold out nationwide and inspired audiences across the UK to voice their own ideals. The results from 'Manifesto' were published in a pamphlet entitled 'The People's Manifesto' (Ebury Publishing) and the show was also recorded and broadcast as a Radio 4 series earlier this year. So what next?

Never one to take the easy option, Mark decided to go rambling in the Middle East and walked the entire length of the Israeli Separation Barrier crossing between the Israeli and the Palestinian side. This is the story of 300,000 settlers; a 750km wall; six arrests, one stoning; too much hummus and a simple question... can you ever get away from it all with a good walk?

Mark has become one of Britain's most acclaimed comics as well as one of Britain's most recognised and influential activists. After 25 years of performing, six series of the Mark Thomas Product and Mark Thomas Comedy Product with Channel 4, numerous documentaries, two books published by Ebury Press, radio programmes, changing the law on tax, secretly filming torturers, stinging arms dealers with school children, exposing abuses of civil liberties and corporate skulduggery, writing for the New Statesman and the Guardian, Mark has finally conceded that he might have a career yet.

Mark Thomas brings his show 'Extreme Rambling: Walking The Wall' to Bridport Arts Centre on Thursday, June 30th at 8pm. To book tickets, costing £14, £13 for members or £8 concessions) call 01308 424204. or visit www.bridport-arts.com.

Shiva Nova bring world music to Dorchester

SHIVA Nova, one of the West's leading multicultural ensembles, returns to Dorchester after their sell out performance at the Dorchester Festival several years ago. Set up by composer Priti Paintal their fusion of Indian, African and European styles, widely admired and enjoyed for its energy and spontaneity, cleverly integrates elements of jazz, classical and dance music.

They have just released their latest CD 'Secret Chants' which has been critically acclaimed in the national and music media with The Times hailing them 'A victory for musicianship and vision'. Shiva Nova is a dimension of new musical excitement, bringing together virtuoso improvising musicians from Europe, Asia and Africa.

Shiva Nova are spending two days working with every year 8 student in St. Osmond's, Puddletown and Dorchester Middle Schools running workshops in South Indian percussion, African drumming and Indian vocals. The students will present a short showcase of the work they have done at the beginning of the performance.

This is a rare opportunity to enjoy subtle eastern grooves and mesmerizing world music.

The show takes place at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Friday, June 24th. Doors and the bar open at 7.30pm, with performance from 8pm. Tickets cost £10, or £6 for members and concessions, available from www.dorchesterarts.org.uk or by calling 01305 266926.

Hotly-tipped Secret Sisters coming to the Electric Palace

LAURA Rogers and Lydia Rogers are The Secret Sisters, an American country duo from Alabama currently earning great respect on the British music scene after appearing on Jools Holland earlier this year. The sisters adorned the cover of the Sunday Times Culture magazine just last month with an article that compared their style and talent to both the Everly Brothers and the Andrews Sisters.

The Secret Sisters' incredible story is as simple and true as the effortless harmonies that got them here. Fortified by an airtight familial camaraderie – "a love of music from all sides" gushes Laura – "our father, our mother's side of the family, her mother and father – our church...all our cousins..." and emboldened with a zeal for country music and a knowledgeable repertoire of the American canon of classic recordings, it took an impromptu Nashville audition by Laura to bring their incredible talents into focus. Lydia showed up later, and when the two were asked to sing together, all the music business representatives present realized the mission was a simple one: To capture this abundance of raw talent in its purest form.

Recorded in Nashville in a mere two weeks in legendary Blackbird studios, helmed by acclaimed producer Dave Cobb and T Bone Burnett serving as the Executive Producer, their debut album is a guileless, rapturous mixture of roots-ified pop, includes classics like "Why Don't Ya Love Me?" and "Why Baby Why." The album was recorded the same way it would have been recorded in the 1950s. No computers or digital equipment were even allowed near the sessions in an effort to capture the sisters' stunning vocal prowess 'as is.' "The girls were able to step up and deliver just as we first heard them," says Cobb. "They possess that rarest quality of being able to convert their magic exactly as it comes across. We didn't have to do anything but bring the band in."

Catch The Secret Sisters live at the Electric Palace on Friday, September 2nd for what promises to be a fantastic evening of real talent and music. Tickets on sale now for £10 from Bridport Tourist Info Centre 01308 424901

Four-legged pub race kicks off Dorchester Carnival

THE first event of three fun-packed days of Dorchester Carival, sponsored by Brewery Square, is the ever-entertaining four-legged pub race.

Teams of three, tied together at the ankles, have to navigate seven town centre pubs and bars, downing a drink (a half pint of bitter, lager or squash) in each – with the winner receiving a trophy and the prestige of being Dorchester Carnival Pub Race Champions for 2011!

Fancy dress is optional – but certainly adds to the fun.

spokesman Marten Gregory commented "This event is always great fun, and is a great opening event for the Carnival. Some of the teams take it very seriously, and finish the route in quite amazing times. Others take it a little slower, and some never seem to make it to the finishing line! If you want to take part, but aren't in a team, please come along anyway – we will try and make up extra teams on the night."

Entry is open to everyone aged over 18, and costs £12 per team – which goes towards local charities and good causes.

The race starts at The Blue Raddle at 7.00pm, finishing at The Royal Oak (Wetherspoons). Teams can turn up on the night, but organisers would appreciate advance notice from anyone wanting to take part.

The Carnival Grand Procession starts at the market car park from 6pm on Saturday, June 18th.

For more information, or to download an entry form, please visit the carnival website – www.dorchester-carnival.co.uk

ARDAL O'HANLON TO HEADLINE ELECTRIC COMEDY

ELECTRIC Comedy proudly presents it's first show of the summer, featuring an incredible all-star line-up headlined by legendary Father Ted star ARDAL O'HANLON.

Ardal O' Hanlon founded the well-renowned Comedy Cellar in Dublin before he became a household name as Father Dougal McGuire in the much loved sitcom Father Ted. Ardal's off beat stories, unexpected twists and sheer originality ensure there is no other performer like him. With a host of awards under his belt and star turns on Live At The Apollo, Argumental & Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow, Ardal's thoughtful, self-effacing, punchy and always hilarious comedy has consistently charmed critics and delighted audiences on his huge sell-out tours and he continues to be one of the most sought after acts in the country.

Joining Ardal is probably the fastest rising comedy star of the moment - Mock The Week regular Seann Walsh. Championed by the broadsheet press as 'this generations Dylan Moran', the frighteningly talented observational comic is on the verge of breaking into the premier league of the comedy world.

Returning to Bridport to host the show is resident compere Craig Campbell, fresh off the back of his huge UK tour after storming appearances on Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow and Dave's One Night Stand.

The Electric Comedy night takes place on Tuesday, June 28th at The Electric Palace, Bridport. Doors open at 7pm. Tickets cost £12.50 and are available from Bridport TIC on 01308 424901.

Genre-defying Scots Shooglenifty come to Bridport

ON Saturday, June 25th ground-breaking Scottish mavericks Shooglenifty push the word 'traditional' to its limits with their unique blend of dance vibes and roots music at the Electric Palace in Bridport.

Genuinely genre defying, they have been described as everything from "acid croft" to "hypno-folkadelia." Journalists may compete for words to describe, but all agree they are virtually impossible not to dance to and one of the best live bands of their genre around. Over the past dozen or so years Shooglenifty's unique twist on trad has won them an extensive and devoted fanbase not only across Europe, the US and Australasia, but as far afield as India, Malaysia and Japan.

A hugely exciting band to watch live – tickets are on sale now from £12.50 / 10.50 Friends from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901

Motorists urged to prepare as forecaster predicts the worst winter on record

ATS Euromaster is urging motorists to pre-order sets of cold weather tyres after a meteorologist predicted this winter will "break all records" in terms of snowfall and freezing temperatures.

Specialist long-range forecaster James Madden, of Exakta Weather, correctly predicted the harsh conditions experienced over the last two years and gave his forecast to tyre specialist ATS Euromaster as it prepares to fit cold weather tyres in the UK for the second year running.

He warns: "The UK is to brace itself for well below average temperatures and widespread heavy snowfall throughout winter 2011/2012, which will result in the fourth bad winter in succession for the UK, and will prove to be the worst of them all."

"I fully expect records to be broken, with the Highlands of Scotland being once again particularly hard hit. It is vital to start preparing now."

ATS Euromaster's decision to introduce a system of pre-ordering cold weather tyres follows unprecedented demand last year, when many retailers sold out within days of the first snowfall. Thousands of disappointed motorists were unable to locate supplies, leaving cars and vans left stranded on driveways or at the side of the road.

From 20 June 2011, motorists can reserve Michelin, Pirelli, Avon or Riken cold weather tyres at their local ATS Euromaster. Customers will pay a 25 per cent deposit, with the balance due when the tyres are fitted in September, October or November. Prices have been fixed, so customers pre-ordering won't pay any more if tyre prices increase later in the year – and if prices drop, they will pay the lower amount.

Chris Hufflett, Group Operations Director at ATS Euromaster, says:

"Last year the UK had its first real taste of cold weather tyres and they quickly became hot property. We could have sold our stock several times over."

"With the forecast of another bad winter on the cards we're confident our pre-ordering system will help car and van owners to guarantee supply and avoid the mad scramble to secure tyres when the wintry conditions return."

ATS Euromaster warns that whilst it has ordered additional stocks for winter 2011/2012, the massive demand from mainland Europe – where fitment of cold weather tyres is a legal requirement in many countries – means UK supplies may still run short.

Cold weather tyres use a higher concentration of silica to prevent the rubber hardening when the temperature drops below 7°C, together with a specially designed tread pattern which ensures they provide better grip, handling, cornering and reduced braking distances in the cold – as well as on wet, snow and ice covered roads.

Last winter ATS Euromaster and its parent company, Euromaster Group, sold over 1.5 million cold weather tyres across Europe, securing the company's position as Europe's leading cold weather tyre expert.

Prices start from £174 for a set of four Riken 145/70 R13 cold weather tyres, including fitting, and are available from 350 ATS

Euromaster centres throughout England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland. To locate your nearest ATS Euromaster call 0800 601060, text 'tyres' to 83332 or visit www.atseuromaster.co.uk

Long-range forecasting

James Madden's forecast is based on major natural factors, including solar activity, and how they impact weather and climate on Earth. His forecasting techniques have attracted significant attention in recent years after correctly forecasting seasonal trends in the UK – and following the Met Office's decision to scrap its own seasonal forecasts in March 2010, after being criticised for failing to predict extreme weather.

Madden's forecasts are shared globally via Exakta Weather, a non-profit weather organisation that comprises a team of meteorologists from around the world, with a speciality for providing long range forecasting information for the UK, northern Europe, and the USA.

What do you keep in yours?

Is your garage full of bikes, paint cans, the lawn mower – in fact anything but the car? Research by Manheim Auctions has revealed that 55% of motorists don't park their car in their garage, preferring instead to use it to store household items or as a garden shed.

25% of motorists manage to fit both their car and other equipment inside their garage, whilst only 21% admit to using their garage for its original purpose.

The top ten items stored in British garages include:
1. Lawnmower 2. DIY Tools 3. Bikes 4. Ladder 5. Golf clubs 6. Tent 7. BBQ 8. Garden equipment – soil, plant pots 9. Drink 10. Guinea pigs

"Where you park your car may seem like a trivial subject, but keeping it in a garage may pay off in the long run," commented Craig Mailey, Marketing Director, Manheim Auctions.

"If a car is stored in a dry, cool garage every night it's more likely to have a higher resale value because it's been protected from the elements and risk of accidental damage. Paint weathers so keeping it inside a garage will help to protect it, and if a car is parked outside there's always the opportunity for it to be exposed to accidental knocks and scrapes by other drivers or passers-by."

"In the 1970s it was the norm to use the garage to provide essential respite care for fragile cars. The modern car may be more robust but don't neglect what is, after your home, likely to be your most valuable asset."

DORCHESTER 227-5 BEAT WEYMOUTH 218-8 BY 9 RUNS

THERE was an exciting finish to the first of this year's local derbies with Weymouth just failing to reach their target after being reduced to 80-5.

Will McKay who was still there at the end with 74 not out and Matt Lawes (27) looked like they were going to stop Dorchester's recent good record against them with a seventh wicket stand of 64, but James Dunham (2-54) who celebrated his 18th birthday the day before and was carted for three sixes by McKay, kept his nerve to snare Lawes and then trap the dangerous Simon Browne (5) to slow the Seaside's progress who eventually ran out of overs.

Dorchester were invited to bat having lost the toss, and the accurate bowling of Rob Nobbs (0-45) and Lawes (2-40) who dismissed Dave Maslen (8) and Adam Rendell (2) saw Dorchester make an uneasy start at 27-2.

However this brought Rob Waite (65) and Dan Belt (79) to the wicket and they plundered 141 for the third wicket that took the initiative away from Weymouth. Belt's innings, following on from a half century the previous week included a huge six of Cube White that landed in the cemetery.

When both perished in close succession, an unfinished partnership between Quenton Miller (20 not out) and captain Martyn Richards (22 not out) saw the county town reach a respectable 227-5 off their allotted overs; McKay (2-32) and Brown (1-24) picking up the other wickets.

Mike Peak, called up to replace the injured Phil Morley, removed Weymouth skipper Paul Payne (8) and Dean Janaway (5) to leave Weymouth 32-2 in reply, but despite 36 from Tom England and 19 from Jim Ryall, with Waite (2-36) and Miller (2-38) getting among the wickets the visitors were soon struggling at 80-5.

When Sean Fitzgerald (16) went at 100-6 it looked like an early finish, but McKay found support in Lawes and almost turned the tables.

Dorchester's Richards said: "It was a tremendous win for us in the end, as Weymouth made a really good go of it considering they were 80-5 at one stage.

"It was a great partnership between Rob Waite and Dan Belt which set us up for a strong total after losing two early wickets to Matt Lawes. The total could have been significantly more but for the loss of Dan and the accurate death bowling of Rob Nobbs and Matt Lawes.

"Dan and Mike Peak, bowled impeccable lines with the new ball and Mike forced the wickets of Paul Payne and Dean Janaway, before he pulled up with a calf injury.

Waite picked up where Peak had left off and from the other end Quenton Miller followed Dan with a superb spell of accurate seam bowling.

"Matt Lawes and Will McKay brought Weymouth back into the game with a partnership of 64 but Shaun Little's great line and length at the end made it near impossible for Weymouth's batters to get the total.

"It was a relief to walk off victorious, particularly after Weymouth were in the mire at 80-5 but I reminded the guys that was exactly the position we found ourselves in at Wimborne last week.

"Ultimately the difference was discipline - all of our bowlers bowled straight and conceded very few extras, and while we put a couple of catches down we took key chances which Weymouth failed to on a number of occasions."

Division One

WEYMOUTH 281-5 BEAT HAMWORTHY REC 120 ALL OUT BY 161 RUNS

A SUPERB century from Jonny Armfield and outstanding bowling from Simon Mitchem were the highlights of the victory that puts daylight between their opponents at the bottom of the league.

Armfield returning after several weeks injured with a broken thumb looked like he had never been away, as he smashed 120 runs well supported by a half century from Kieran Womble.

Asked to bat first, Weymouth got off to a bright start before Cameron Armfield was brilliantly caught by Mike Fisher off his own bowling. Jonny Armfield joined Joe Trevett (33) and they put on 50 for the second wicket playing very well and saw off the spin attack before the opener was dismissed with the score on 84-2.

Armfield and Womble then added a breathtaking 137 and despite Hamworthy setting the field well back to stop the boundaries, both batsmen timed the ball to perfection, hitting the ball to gaps and running many two's and three's. Womble was eventually run out for 53, whilst Armfield finally succumbed for 120.

Platts (31) and Wood (18) put on 49 for the first wicket before Michael Pearce (1-16) made the breakthrough, but with Kinsella (25) looking strong they moved on to 87 before Dan Hutchens and Mitchem got to work. Hutchens bagged 4-34 from 9.2 overs but it was Mitchem's incredible 5-7 from seven overs, four of them maidens that saw Hamworthy lose nine wickets for just 23 runs.

Captain David Trotter said: "Jonny and Kieran's stand was brilliant and was one of the better batting displays I have seen from either party. With Hamworthy having set the field to stop the boundaries, both batsmen hit the ball into the gaps and ran lots of two's and three's; very sensible and wise batting from two young men. Johnny's innings was truly superb."

Commenting on his sides bowling he commented: "Dan Hutchens bowled with pace, bounce and fire and was excellent. The bowler of the day however was Simon Mitchem who was brilliant. He even bowled a batsman and the balls didn't fall off! Therefore his figures could have been even better. I am really pleased for him as he has lacked confidence lately and this performance will do him a load of good. He is a talented young man and an asset in any team with both bat and ball.

To be fair to Hamworthy they fielded a weak side on the day and I am sure the next time around we will be facing a far stronger team. I felt for John Ryan and James Almond who have both bowled well as late but I did not have the opportunity to get them on, but I am confident that they will both be called on next week.

"On the whole we have shown continued improvement in all aspects of the game, the biggest improvement has been our fielding with some great catches and out fielding. James Almond for example took a marvellous catch in the covers during the game.

"During the last three games we have picked up 48 points which has been a tremendous effort."

Division Two

BEAMINSTER 247-9 BEAT CRANBORNE 147 ALL OUT BY 100 RUNS

BEAMINSTER finally claimed their first win of the season with a comprehensive 100 run victory over third placed Cranborne at the Memorial Playing Field.

Joe Hawkins was the star with a quickfire 58 from 32 balls to give Beaminster the platform to attack, and then claimed 4-49 as Cranborne crumbled to give the hosts a much needed boost, although it was very much a good all round team performance both with bat and ball. Missing eight regulars, Beaminster had to scratch their second team game to fulfil the fixture, but everyone produced a sterling performance.

Winning the toss Beaminster decided to bat, and although runs were hard to come by, Richard Runyard and Dave Penman battled determinedly with a superb opening stand of 81 before Runyard was bowled for 43 trying to force the score.

With Penman (32) stoically holding down one end Baker (20) and Hawkins played positively looking to accelerate the scoring. With middle order support from Hugh Rathbone (22) and Adam Herring (13) also hitting some aggressive boundaries, Hawkins finally fell for an excellent 58 with five overs left, but with David Hall scoring a useful 13 not out, Beaminster reached 247-9 off their 45 overs.

Cranborne began positively and scored some hard hitting boundaries, but Payne (13) paid for it when he was stumped brilliantly down the leg side off Baker's bowling (2-32) with the score on 30.

Hawkins then removed Beacham (5), Park (19) and the dangerous Ingram (34); the opener and captain dismissed by a superb catch by Steve Garland at mid-on from a thumping shot off a full toss.

With Herring (2-19) and Murray Legg (1-23) off their five overs also bowling tightly it was left to Make Barber off his very first ball to wrap up the win by bowling Lima (2) to give Beaminster 19 points.

Baker said: "It's been a long time coming, and we defied the odds with eight regulars missing, but it was a great win. Winning the toss on a good wicket I thought 220 was a good target, so to get 247 was a bonus.

"Richard and Dave made a solid start but it put us slightly behind the clock, so Joe's aggressive innings backed up by a few more of us got us back on track.

"Joe was in great form with the ball as well as some brilliant fielding and once their skipper went we never looked back and they crumbled under our pressure."

WIMBORNE & COLEHILL 2ND 240-9 BEAT

DORCHESTER 2ND 228-8 BY 12 RUNS

IF having your first line bowlers, Mike Peak and Quenton Miller taken by the first team wasn't bad enough, Dave Herbert was injured at the start of the match and Krish Subramanian arrived an hour late due to traffic.

Add the fact that the hosts included some first team players coming back from injury, it made life tough for the league leaders.

That said Dorchester produced an excellent performance in the circumstances, but in the end just ran out overs.

Stuart Beasley, on his birthday, and Subramanian both bowled well and took four wickets each as they restricted Wimborne to 240-9 despite being restricted in the field by injuries and late arrivals.

In reply Dorchester were indebted to half centuries from Chris Backhouse (70+), a limping Herbert (60+) and Colin Edney (50+) but just fell short in the end.

Joint-captain Simon Joslin said: "Under the circumstances we did very well, and it was a great advert for cricket. We competed well and everyone worked very hard, and 12 points in the circumstances was very good."

Division Three

PARLEY 2ND 113 ALL OUT LOST TO CATTISTOCK 201-9 BY 88 RUNS

Cattistock were invited to bat after a rain delay that restricted the innings to 42 overs. They relied on three batsmen; James England (59), Martin Langford (57) and Ben Gollge (24) along with extras of 41 for their total, the other seven members of the team only contributing 20 between them.

Martin Langford then teamed up with his father Buddy to dismiss the hosts for just 113 all out. Martin took 4-12 from 9.1 overs whilst Buddy weighed in with 3-28 from 10 overs. The win might have been greater had Parley's top scorer Gavin Oldbury with 46, not been dropped on two!

MARTINSTOWN 206-8 BEAT BRIDPORT 103 ALL OUT BY 103 RUNS

A SUPERB innings of 96 from Tom Adams rescued Martinstown from a tricky situation at 37-4 to record a relatively easy victory over Bridport.

Dom Gape (2-24 off 12 overs) and Ashley Nicholls put the home openers under pressure and when Gape caught and bowled Henry Lewis (10) with the score on 18 it triggered a mini collapse with Ed Nicholls (12), Rob O'Brien (0) and Danny Dancer (4) all falling to Nicholls.

However Sam Kershaw joined Adams and they set about repairing the damage. It was Bridport skipper Mark Smith (1-21) who broke the century plus stand by snaring Kershaw for 40, before Adams, who scored at almost a run a ball smashing eighteen 4's and a six became Nicholls fourth victim going for the big hit that would have given him three figures.

Gape bowled Stuart Fry (4) before Nicholls (5-50) completed an excellent 'five-for' with Matthew Camp's wicket, leaving home captain Nick Quintrell on 14 not out.

Bridport got off to a bad start in reply losing Liam Toohill for a duck to Dancer and Nicholls for a single to Camp to leave them 3-2. However Smith (12) and Gape (37) with a stand of 46 started to retrieve the situation, but after Smith's demise only Luke King (17) and Wes Lewis (19 not out) offered any resistance against Liam Banfield (4-26) and Dancer (4-25) who scythed through the bottom of the order.

Winning captain Quincey said: "It was another good victory after a tricky start. I was really pleased with our team's performance, especially the calmness of thought displayed by Sam and Tommy in rescuing us from 37-4, enabling us to post another total in advance of 200.

"There was a bit of uneven bounce and it was never easy to time the ball which further emphasises the value of Tommy's brilliant inning. Our bowlers immediately settled on tidy areas not allowing Bridport to settled and gain momentum in their innings, and the pressure eventually told. The fact that eight of the Bridport batsmen were bowled reflects the number of deliveries we were landing in the right areas of the pitch. It is great as a captain when the bowling clicks like that, and hopefully a sign of things to come."

Bridport's Smith said: "I won the toss and decided to bowl first and it looked like a great decision after Ash Nicholls and Dom Gape ripped into the top order, and at 37-4 I was confident of a lowish total to chase, but Tom Adams Sam Kershaw put paid to that and with a short boundary and a few chances just not going to hand their total soon got away from us.

"Until I could get Nicholls and Gape back on, the game got away from us and chasing 206 got into our heads and the collapse happened again.

"Only Dom and Wes Lewis looked like hitting a few after some quick accurate bowling from Martinstown, and other than the partnership between Dom and I no one looked confident enough to take us near their total. On the day Martinstown were just too strong and are worthy of their top two position.

"For the second week Dom Gape shone for us with both bat and ball, backed up by some excellent bowling by Ash Nicholls with his five wicket haul.

Missing Sam Good, Mark Tozer and Duane Gay didn't help, but all players are available for next week so a quick response against Cerne Valley is essential."

DIVISION FOUR

BEAMINSTER 2NDS scratched due to not being able to field a team

WEYMOUTH 3RD 200-8 DREW WITH BROADSTONE 3RD 200-7

WEYMOUTH almost snatched victory off the last ball of one of the most exciting game seen at Redlands for a long time.

There looked to be no chance of victory as they required 23 off the last two overs, and nine from the penultimate one meant 14 off the last six balls.

With the 2nd team whose match had finished early, cheering them on, remarkably they got 12 from the first five, but they could only manage one off the last ball for a remarkable draw.

Coasting at 90-1 with Luke Carrington (42) and Harry Tucker (43) leading the charge, Weymouth had a middle order collapse to 120-5 before Matt Batchelor (29) and Dave Chubb (22) got them back on track. However it took a gargantuan effort from Tim Guyett (25 not out) at the death that mainly earned the draw.

Earlier the hosts had reduced Broadstone to 23-4 with Ryan Sers (5-37) in terrific form taking all four wickets. However a fifth wicket century partnership put the pressure back on Weymouth. Guyett (1-39) and Rob Townley (2-25) shared the other wickets.

Division Five

CHRISTCHURCH 2ND 178-9 LOST TO DORCHESTER 3RD 231 ALL OUT BY 53 RUNS (REDUCED TO 41 OVERS)

DORCHESTER 3rds returned to winning ways with an emphatic 53 run victory away at high flying Christchurch.

Hugh Pryce (60) and Jamie Quinten (52 not out) both performed well with the bat, whilst a partnership of 60 at the end of the innings between Quinten and Sam Roles gained Dorchester maximum batting points with an impressive 231 in a rain reduced 41 overs.

The Christchurch reply started briskly with a 50 run opening partnership coming in only the 8th over, before Taylor Quinten struck twice in three balls which included dangerous Australian Alex Blumfield for 39.

Roles and Dominic Royle chipped in with a wicket apiece to leave the hosts on 64-4, and with Christchurch finding the spin twins of left arm Aaron Oliver (2-38) and Sam Roles (3-39) difficult to score from, wickets fell regularly including a hat trick of catches from captain Pete Tucker. Sixteen-year-old Josh Foot then claimed his first senior wicket for the club with his first ball as Christchurch fell short of their target.

Skipper Tucker said: "Hugh Pryce and Jamie Quinten batted brilliantly to set up the victory and the range of shots played was very impressive from both batsmen."

Division Six

WAREHAM 274-8 BEAT ABBOTSBURY 227-8 BY 47 RUNS

BRIDPORT 151 ALL OUT BEAT

OLD BLANDFORDIANS 53 ALL OUT BY 98 RUNS

PETE Bustin decimated Old Blandfordians with a devastating 7-25 from 9.4 overs to give Bridport a comfortable win after Toby Hall had blasted an excellent 67 for the home side.

The hosts found themselves 53-4 before Hall got going and finding support from Chris Churchill (21) they saw Bridport to a modest total of 151 all out.

Old Blandfordians showed nothing in reply and with Bridport holding all their catches in the field, Bustin supported by young Jack Walklett who took 2-11 from four overs, soon polished off the opposition.

Acting-captain Rod Gay said: "It was a great bowling display by Pete, and Jack also showed what a good player he is developing into. Apart from Toby, a superb innings, and Chris, our batting was pretty poor, but we were good in the field."

Division Seven

BOURNEMOUTH 2ND 97 ALL OUT

LOST TO CREWKERNE 98-2 BY EIGHT WICKETS

CREWKERNE eventually completed what was an easy eight wicket win at Chapel Gate thanks to an unbroken third wicket stand of 80 between Jon Gould (34 not out) and Sam Briggs (37 not out).

Earlier the Somerset side had dispatched Bournemouth for just 97 all out. Francis Medley (3-17) from ten overs had softened up the top of the order, before Mark Culpitt (5-26) ripped out the lower order with only Towers (27 not out) showing any resistance.

Towers had Steve Biggs caught for 14 before Geoff Carr was trapped leg before for a duck to leave Crewkerne on 18-2 before Gould and Sam Briggs won the day.

ON THE GREEN - LYME REGIS GOLF

LYME Regis Golf Club staged their annual Golf Week in weather which was, in the main ideal for good golf writes Steve Percival. With a full field of participants from as far afield as Dorking in Surrey and Tenerife in the Canary Islands, the competitions were varied with a variety of excellent prizes on offer for both home and visiting players.

First event of the week, on Sunday, June 5th, was an individual stableford competition which had some excellent scores carded in both of the men's competitions with some creditable scores also recorded by the visitors in the ladies division.

Yet again Ed Lawrence of Lyme Regis carded and exceptional score with 41 points but was narrowly beaten into second place by Richard Lawrence on countback. The men's visitors division saw Mr R Pau l of Dorking score an excellent 40 points to take the honours over Mr P McLaughlin of Bramshaw Golf Club, on countback. The ladies visitors competition was won by Mrs J McLaughlin of Bramshaw Golf club with 36 points.

Monday was the day for the first of the team events in the form of a 3 ball two best scores event. With fairways giving good run and greens running true the visiting team of Mr B Dickinson, Mr I Morgan and Mr T Chilcott from Bramshaw Golf Club in the heart of the New Forest, recorded an exceptional 85 points to achieve first place over the team from MacDonald Portal Premier Golf Club with 75.

The Tuesday event was a mixed Texas Scramble. Inevitably the scores were again impressive and saw locals from Bridport and Lyme Golf clubs achieve first place with 57.4. Second place was the team from Fingle Glen Golf Club in Exeter with 58.2.

Following the day's golf, a full house sat down in the evening to enjoy a fun quiz, hosted by Club house manager David Astill, which saw victory go to local team "The Who."

The Wednesday four ball better ball event also saw some very impressive scores with the visiting team of A Vickery and J Ansell from Enmore taking first place with 47 points over club colleagues June Symcox and Steph Bristow with 46 points.

In the home division current club vice captain Steve Phillips partnered by Neil Smith achieved first place with 41 points.

Thursday saw a change in the weather with sunny periods interspersed by heavy rain showers. However, whilst the golfers may have been a little damp on the outside their enthusiasm and spirit were by no means dampened and this was reflected in the scores in the individual stableford event which saw Mr A Frankum of Honiton card a very creditable 38 points to win the visitors division.

In the lady visitors division Mrs L Pinnick of Bramshaw Golf Club also scored 38 points to achieve first place.

The home division saw the spoils go to Roger Seed with 36 points who narrowly beat son George on Countback.

The final golf event of the week was a mixed progressive Bowmaker which again produced some excellent scores from both visitors and home golfers alike.

The visiting division was won by the team of Alice Robinson, John Ansell, Alan Vickery and Stephanie Bristow from Enmore Golf club with 114 points over a team from Churston Golf Club Brixham. The top home team were Matt Searle, Keith Gibson, Ian Hobson and Mike Stockwell with 110 points.

With all of the on course activity satisfactorily concluded, the highly successful week was concluded with the Friday evening prize giving and dinner attended by over 80 visiting and home golfers.

Blake zips to fastest in world in Ukraine

PAUL Blake continued his quest for gold at next year's 2012 Olympics with a tremendous performance in the Ukraine Athletics Championships in Yevpatoriya recently.

The 21-year-old middle distance runner has been concentrating on improving his speed at Bath University where he trains as part of the UK Athletics Paralympic Programme.

He entered the T36 200m and 400m as part of the training regime, and produced the fastest time in the world this year when winning the 200m.

Blake smashed the previous best of 26.60 by over a second, winning in 25.19, but is still shy of the world record time of 24.60secs.

In the 400m he was just edged out by Ukraine's Roman Pavlik, the Beijing 2008 Olympic bronze medallist, who beat him by just by 1/100th of a second, but shaved 1/10th of a second off his PB in a time of 56.86secs.

"I was really pleased with my times. This was part of my speed training and so I was quite surprised how well I did, but it is all good background for my build up to the Olympics.

"I lost out on gold in Auckland in the 800m and 1500m partly because of my lack of finishing speed, and so the training I have been doing will put me in good stead, and that showed in my times here.

"At the moment the longer races are still my goal, but we will see how things pan out in the next few months as to whether I look at running the sprints."

Blake was due to compete at a small meet in Watford today where he will run the 200m and his first competitive 100m, before preparing for a competition in Stuttgart next month.

Stopper Evo set to return?

SIMON Evans could be ready to make a dramatic move back to Dorchester Town following the expulsion of Rushden & Diamonds from the Blue Square Conference for financial reason.

Evans left the Magpies in January for the Northamptonshire club and has played six times for their Conference side.

However following the problems which see a winding-up petition being brought against the club next month, boss Ashley Vickers has been quick to contact Evans to pursue the possibility of the 22-year-old returning to The Avenue.

"It's something I'm following up. We have Dan Thomas on loan for the season from Bournemouth, but it looks as if Regan Coward has decided to leave the club, so we need competition for the keeper's spot."

Coward rejected a new deal from the club and looks set to move on.

"He wanted a guarantee of first team football, and that's something we can't give anyone.

"The deal we offered we believe was very good, certainly a lot better relatively than I got at his age, but he is not happy and appears to be moving on, and we wish him well."

Rumours that Bath City's Danny Webb could be a possible signing have been quashed by Vickers.

"We were keen on Danny coming but he has been offered a great deal by Bath City, and whilst the chairman (Shaun Hearn) as always pulled out all the stops he could it was too much for us."

"I know Danny who can play centre half or centre forward, very well, and I know he would have liked to come, but we just couldn't afford him at the moment."

Vickers hasn't given up hope yet of persuading Chris Flood to stay at the Avenue either.

The winger came on loan from Crawley Town last season but signed until the end of the season after he cancelled his contract with Crawley Town by mutual consent.

Vickers said: "He has been offered a new contract but is mulling it over as it was naturally a big fall in wages from Conference, but I am hopeful I can persuade him to sign."

◆ DORCHESTER Town will visit Bridport on July 9th to help the newly promoted Toolstation Western League Premier Division side celebrate their 125th anniversary.

The Bees lost to a Dorchester side 5-1 in their first competitive game back on February 6th 1886.

Manager's award for Sampson

UPLYME Football Club held their annual presentation night at their sponsors, The Nags Head, Lyme Regis, on Saturday evening.

Chairman Gavin Fowler welcomed all players and supporters and thanked Debbie and Rob Hamon for their support over the last season.

"At the start of the season, we had a big squad but no manager, so myself and Roger Smart took over the post. The season started brilliantly with good results, and we were near the top of the table. But Roger and I found we were unable to give the necessary time needed to manage, and play, for the team with a young family, so Rob Coombe took over and has done a brilliant job!

"The team, which finished in 5th place in the Perry Street League Division Two and was the second highest scoring team in the division, managed to win the Jim Larcombe pre-season Invitational Cup and were runners-up in the Tommy Tabberer Cup. Also Geoff Fisher was voted Linesman of the Year for the entire Perry Street League, which is an accolade he truly deserves - he turns up all winds and weathers and gives 100 percent."

Manager Rob Coombe thanked Gavin and Roger for taking on the leadership of the club, he said: "Without them there wouldn't have been a team now. I have really enjoyed managing the team.

"One of the most difficult moments in the job was picking the team for the cup final - but I feel I made the right choice and we did well."

Awards were presented to; James Beddows (Players Player), Paul Sampson (Managers player), Gavin Fowler (Top goal scorer 14th year running), Keiren White (Young Player), Greg Matthews & Ryan Prendeville (Most improved), Geoff Fisher (Fair play), Colin Pratt (Clubman).

Training starts for Uplyme Football Club, and their reserve team, on Tuesday, July 12th at 6.30pm at Venlake Meadow, all players - new or old are very welcome.

WEYMOUTH RUGBY

Under 14s' awards

WEYMOUTH RFC under 14s held the presentation of their annual end of season awards recently.

The winners were: Player of the Year - Scott Mitchell; Most Improved Player - Josh Roach; Clubman of the Year - Anthony House; Players Player of the Year - Sam Ford;

Coaches Award - Rhodri Tanner

The club would also like to thank the parents, Lynda Lewendon for managing so well, Helen and Jim Ford for assistance with kit and kitchens, Hilary and Alan Yuille, Chip Aitken, Nick and Sonia Reed, and Andy Tanner.

New managers installed

CHARMOUTH Football Club held their annual meeting at The George Hotel last Wednesday evening.

The Chairman reported that, although the team had been relegated, the club were very upbeat and looking forward to a much more successful season in Division Two of the Perry Street League.

The following decisions were made:

Wayne Causley was re-elected as chairman.

Colin Bowditch was re-elected as President and then, by a unanimous decision, was made an Honorary Life President for his lifetime of service to the club both as player, manager, groundsman, fundraiser, and committee member.

Mike Smith was re-elected as Treasurer and Tina Norman was re-elected as Secretary.

Steve Pratt and Alec Aldworth were re-elected as committee members and two new committee members Paul Grinter (young player of the year) and Gerry Bearpark were also appointed to increase the total number of active committee members back up to a level not seen for many years.

For the first time for many years there were two candidates for the position of Team Manager. The current manager Nick Pomeroy who wished to continue and new joint applicants Phill Morris (who has been involved with the club as a player and former manager for almost 30 years) and local Charmouth player Gerry Bearpark.

After a very close vote Morris and Bearpark were appointed as joint managers for the upcoming 2011/12 season.

The pair outlined their plans in particular that training would recommence on Wednesday evenings at the ground at the end of June and all existing, past and new players were welcomed to come along.

Nick Pomeroy the outgoing manager was sincerely thanked by the chairman for stepping into the breach part way through last season and for his long standing support of the club.

Ladies on top in County Town

LYME REGIS BOWLING CLUB ROUND-UP by Paul Moffitt

AS I sit writing this, 10am on Sunday, one could be forgiven for thinking it was mid-January not mid June - The only give away being the green trees!

But bowling goes on. We're a hardy bunch and it takes more than a drop of rain and a howling gale to stop us enjoying our sport. Enjoying being used very loosely here!

This coming weekend signals the start of the Annual Tournament, organisers and competitors alike will be hoping for a radical change in the weather.

All men's league teams were resting this week, but the ladies collected 10 points from a 77-44 win at Dorchester.

This is a very welcome boost at this stage, languishing near the bottom of the table as they are.

Lyme managed to lose all three friendlies this week, touring sides again proving that they are tough opposition.

Lyme's men managed to crash out of the County Cup in the first round. Matched up against Branksome Park-home and away- we were well beaten on three of the four rinks.

Only Paul Pomeroy's rink playing at home managed to sneak home with four shots to spare.

This result is all the more disappointing, when you consider that the league side took all 10 points against the same opposition just a week earlier.

Saturday, May 28th Juniors

SIX juniors and one guest turned out to fish the match.

Five of the competitors caught fish, with a nice bass of 632g being caught by James Lawrence. Whilst this helped him win the prize for the heaviest round fish, he failed to win overall because Jake Preston caught a legal sized rockling which takes precedence (legal size is a fish which measure the minimum retention size as laid down by the Angling Trust which is the governing body of sea angling).

1st: Jake Preston 134g legal weight, 2nd: James Lawrence 632g, 3rd: Connor Hallett 177g

Heaviest flat fish: Aaron Hughes 38g flounder, Heaviest round fish: James Lawrence 632g bass, Most species: Connor Hallett 3 species, Last fish: James Lawrence.

The weather was cloudy with a south-westerly wind 4. Sea was rough and dirty. Prizes donated by: The Old Watchhouse Café, Kay Guppy, Mike Hallett and Tiny.

Sunday, May 29th - (daytime) Seatown

ONCE again being a Bank Holiday Sunday, only eight members turned out to fish.

Most had high expectations of catching fish as the sea was rough and coloured, but alas the fish were scarce with only a few pout being caught; but at least the competitors enjoyed a warm afternoon.

1st Mark Kershaw 575g 5 pout, 2nd Simon Bowditch 445g 5 pout, 3rd Phil Maggs 350g 4 pout Heaviest Fish: Mark Kershaw 135 g pout. Most Species: Craig Horton.

VETERAN local referee Bob Hall was on hand to present his own 'Fair Play Trophy' at the recent Perry Street League annual meeting.

The winners of the award, now in it's 23rd year, were East Devon club Farway United who's first team recorded an impressive average mark of 8.9 out 10 from referees over the course of the season.

Swans soar as Glovers tread water

LAST week my wife and I had the pleasure of enjoying the wonderful Rod Stewart in concert at the Liberty Stadium, Swansea writes Stuart Broom.

It was a magical night and well worth the £100 a ticket my wife paid for a belated birthday present for me.

Sat in my seat about 30 yards from goal and level with the left hand edge of the penalty area, it brought back great memories of my only other visit to the home of Swansea City and the Ospreys rugby team, in mid April three years ago.

That day my son and I saw Yeovil Town upset what should have been the Swans coronation as League One Champions by winning 2-1 and in doing so saved the Glovers from relegation. In fact Swansea were promoted at the end of the game as results went their way, but they didn't do it in the style they would have liked.

Midway through the concert, Rod a big football fan and Celtic supporter introduced the Swansea City team and their manager Brendan Rogers on stage, to congratulate them on promotion to the Premiership following the play-off final at Wembley 48 hours earlier.

At that point I realised what huge strides the Welsh side had made. In just four seasons they had risen from the relative obscurity of playing against the likes of Mark Bircham, wearing what looked like his wife's tights and Anthony Barry, to the prospect of hosting Liverpool, Arsenal and Chelsea and a multitude of million pound footballers come September.

So what has happened to Yeovil in that time?

True last season's 14th place finish with 59 points was five places and seven points better than 2007-08, but not what you may call a raging success. Need I say more?

♦ Winger Andy Welsh has decided to not to renew his contract with Yeovil Town when it expires at the end of the month, but has instead opted for a two-year contract with Johnson Paint Trophy winners Carlisle United.

The slightly built 27-year-old Scotsman joined the Glovers at the beginning of the 2009/10 season and whilst not a prolific scorer was a skilful player with a turn of speed, and was a good crosser of the ball.

Unfortunately he was often the sacrificial lamb under Terry Skiverton when it came to substitutions, as it appeared it was Welsh that made way regardless of whatever area of the field needed changing.

Last season it would seem the manager realised his true value and he was given a fair run, but perhaps a frustrated Welsh became disillusioned with the situation.

Swimmers in Final

Southern Junior League Round 2

report by Paul Harrison

Chard swimmers once again impressed in the Second Round of the Southern Junior League at Hutton Moor Swimming Pool in Weston-super-Mare.

A very strong team performance paid off as they finished second out of six against tough competition. The team finished only a few points behind the winning team which deserves great credit. Chard should also be congratulated for improving on the last round's performance by beating two teams who had previously finished above them.

There were some excellent swimmers in personal best times from several swimmers. Bea Brett achieved a 1st position in the 10yrs Girls 50m Backstroke with a time of 38.92. She also won the 10yrs Girls 50m Butterfly and the 11yrs Girls 50m Backstroke with times of 39.70 and 38.93 respectively. Megan Herbert also came first in the 9yrs Girls 25m Breaststroke with a time of 25.73.

Lewis Pearson gained two 1st place positions, in the Boys 11yrs 50m Butterfly and Freestyle with times of 41.89 and 34.40. Other great swims were from Elisha Hawkins in the 11yrs Girls 50m Breaststroke and Xanthe Dyer in the 9yrs Girls 25m Butterfly, both gaining 1st place positions.

Other top spots were awarded to, Leo Kindred in the 10yrs Boys 50m Breaststroke and Abigail Bonning in the 10yrs Girls 50m Freestyle.

Other individual top three positions were awarded to Jessica Fowler, Jamie Pullinger, Oliver Bright, Henry Taswell, Iain Ross, Joss Copeman, Liam Mathieson and Paul Harrison.

Added to that the following team members all achieved a top three position in the team events: Nancy Doble, Daisy Brett, Flora Hopkinson, Xanthe Dyer, Elisha Hawkins, Abigail Bonning, Carrie Lewis, Ella Harvey, Barnaby Down, Paul Harrison, Jamie Pullinger, Iain Ross, Jasmine Wellman, Helen Underwood, Louis Jones, Oliver Bright, Simon Davis, Joss Copeman, Ryan Adair, Ben Greenslade, Liam Mathieson, Henry Taswell, Bea Brett, Lewis Pearson, Leo Kindred, Tom Simpson, Daniella Edge, Florence Swan, Hope Horsfield and Susan Ross.

The competition at Hutton Moor was hosted by Chard & District Swimming Club. The event ran very smoothly and was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended.

It was a huge bonus that by the end of a very enjoyable competition each and every swimmer in the Chard & District Junior League Team could take pride in coming in a top three position at least one race! As a result of the fantastic performance Chard & District have won a place in the 'A' final of the League later this month.

BOB BUCKLER HORSE RACING

Syndication - a cheap way to have fun!

MANY dream of owning a racehorse and all the fun and excitement that it brings but believe they can't afford it - well you're wrong writes Stuart Broom. Being part of a syndicate is a relatively new option for potential investors and is proving very popular.

Bob Buckler has been running the Strictly Come Racing (SCR) syndicate for four years and is encouraging prospective new owners to come forward.

"It is a really exciting way of being involved without any of the fuss required, as all the administration is done for you."

Anyone who has been to a race meeting will have enjoyed the excitement of cheering on their favourite horse win or lose, but syndication goes a step closer, allowing you to rub shoulders with all the top trainers and owners as well as being involved in the social side with other members of the syndicate both on and off the course.

The current SCR syndicate comprises of a small number of people who pay a monthly fee towards the cost of owning part of a racehorse, or in their case race-horses.

The fee goes towards the training costs, vet fees, race entry and jockey's fees, in fact everything that is required to race a horse. The administration of all these items is handled for you, so you have no need to worry.

In return you get access to the Buckler stable to see your horse in training on the gallops and around the yard as well as complimentary entry to the races when your horse is running, and weekly updates. Occasionally the syndicate meet, maybe at the stables or after racing and enjoy a social gathering of like minded people.

I only had a passing interest in horse racing before I turned to journalism four years ago, and knowing there was a large interest in horse racing, started writing regular reports and features about Bob's yard which was then at Melplash.

This involved random visits to a racecourse when one of Buckler's horses were running, and I have found it to be a very pleasant and interesting experience which mirrored the opportunity that someone in the syndicate would receive.

I have been in the parade ring before the race and met jockeys such as Harry Skelton and Daryl Jacob, and the unsaddling enclosure to hear the jockey's verdict on the horses running. I have visited the weighing room before racing to deliver silks, the pre-parade where the horse is getting final grooming and a check, and to other owners and corporate boxes for drinks and nibbles.

If it were not for the need to meet print deadlines in my job which formalises my week, I would seriously consider becoming a member of a syndicate.

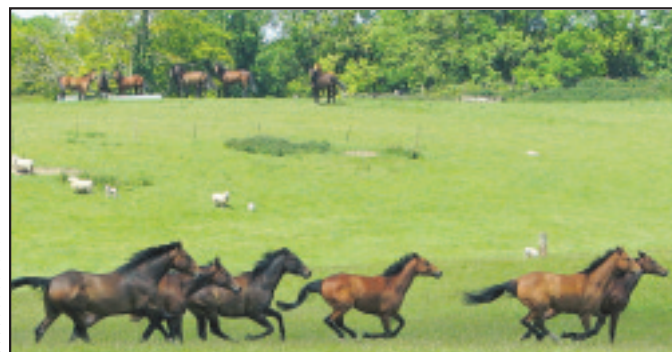

Bob Buckler has a great reputation in racing for his patience and skill in training chasers particularly, and it is fascinating observing his methods.

The SCR currently have one horse in training; Crank Hill, who has won over £12,000 in prize money with two wins and a total of nine places in his 25 races.

With their other horse Charming Oscar having just retired because of a leg injury they are currently in the process of replacing him with one of Buckler's new horses recently purchased from the Doncaster sales.

The cost of becoming a member is an initial £1000 and then £200 a month which represents great value, and anyone interested should contact Bob on 01460 75922.

One point of note; Bob trained 2009 Irish Grand National winner Niche Market, which won over £137,000 in one race!

■ HAVING FUN ON THEIR HOLIDAYS: Some of Buckler's horses have great fun in the sun whilst more on top of the hill watch on.

INSIDE: New management team at Charmouth FC*Babbacombe won't play ball Uplyme FC awards

HALF-Centuries from skipper Ashley Caddy (80), Stve Batey (62) and Adam Caddy (51 no) propelled Uplyme & Lyme Regis to their first 200+ score of the season.

After snapping up the wickets of openers Mark Batey and Ben Whittington with just 18 runs on the board visitors Babbacombe visibly wilted under a third wicket partnership of 118 between Ashley Caddy and Batey.

Caddy struck 11 fours and a six before being deceived by a delivery from slow left-armer Paul Bates, the pick of the Babbacombe attack, which kept low and induced a leading edge.

This brought brother Adam to the wicket and the runs kept coming as he added 41 with Batey before the later was caught trying to force the pace after cracking four 4s and three 6s.

The Babbacombe reply was a turgid affair with the target of 234 apparently beyond their reach before a ball had been bowled.

took wickets at regular intervals but the visitors had 'shut-up shop' long before the end and were content to head back West with eight points from a losing draw on board whilst the hosts had to be content with 14.
